SIXTY-NINTH YEAR — EDMONTON, ALBERTA, MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 19, 1949 — Telephone 42111 — Home Final ★★★ — PRICE 5 CENTS

Canada Likely to Follow U.K. by Dollar Devaluation

SALIENT RESULTS OF DEVALUATION

1—Prices of most British goods may be reduced by amounts varying from a few cents to tens and hundreds of dollars.

2—Items affected will be woolens, linens, glassware, automobiles, hardware, bicycles, motorcycles, chemicals and liquor.

3—Edmonton may expect to profit from added impetus given the northern mine industry because of climb in market value of many stocks. This gives the mining companies more money for exploration and development.

4—Edmontonians planning trips to Britain will now be able to make them much more cheaply.

5—Edmontonians who get money from Britain will now get less in Canadian funds.

6—Immigration to Canada from Britain will probably be slowed as immigrants will be able to bring less capital with them.

7—British farm machinery may make an appearance on Alberta farms.

8—City people planning visits to the U.S. found foreign exchange frozen in city banks today. They were unable to buy or sell U.S. and British funds, or cash U.S. and British cheques, or purchase U.S. funds.

Noronic Disaster Toll Hoped Certain at 121

TORONTO, Sept. 19.—(CP)—As the first formal enquiry into the SS Noronic fire disaster opened today, an official of the Canada Steamship Lines said he felt sure that the toll of dead would remain at 121.

"I feel quite sure 121 is the correct toll and no more bodies will be found," said Robert Ness, secretary of the CSL's operating department.

This tallied with figures compiled by The Canadian Press which showed 121 bodies recovered, 479 known survivors and 84 persons unaccounted for from a total of 684 passengers and crew.

DIVERS AT WORK

"I do not believe there are any bodies left in the ship," Ness said. "We had divers at work in the ship all day yesterday, and it has been thoroughly searched."

Another company official said earlier he was certain that those unaccounted for to date would turn up safely at their homes in the United States.

At mid-day, an official of the emergency morgue where the 121 burned bodies were taken said that 28 had been identified and released. Two had been identified but not released by the coroner. Another five had been tentatively identified.

The enquiry ordered by the Federal Department of Transport was opened by Captain Wilfred N. Morrison, supervising examiner for masters and mates.

He said that only members of the Noronic's crew will be called as witnesses at today's hearing which was held behind closed doors. A full report will be sent to Ottawa and decision regarding a full public enquiry will be made there, he added.

Only three tarpaulin-wrapped charred and blackened forms were taken from the ship Sunday to join the others laid out in the building of death at the Canadian National Exhibition.

Dollar Change Bad For City

Bad news for Edmonton is contained in rumors of devaluation of the Canadian dollar.

It would cost the city an additional $120,000 annually on current bond issues, says an authoritative civic block source.

Wartime devaluation cost the city $60,000 on interest alone on U.S. bond issues. But re-establishment of a 90-cent-dollar now would add about double that amount to the city's financial burden, as principal payments would have to be considered. They were suspended during wartime.

Two bond issues are involved. First is a $9,150,000 serial issue of May 15, 1944, running 17 years. Two payments have been already made on it, cutting the principal to $8,100,000.

Devaluation would more than wipe out the benefit of the low interest rate.

Second is a December 1, 1945, 13-year issue of $2,039,000, on which $160,000 has been repaid. The $1,879,000 balance requires another $160,000 payment on Dec. 1 this year. The amount would be substantially increased by devaluation.

Esks Favored to Trim 'Peg by Touchdown

By Dick Beddoes
Bulletin Sports Writer

WINNIPEG, Sept. 19.—Edmonton Eskimos are favorites here to whip the Blue Bombers by a touch-down in tonight's Western Conference football game at Osborne Stadium.

A sell-out crowd of 6,600 is expected to witness the first appearance of an Edmonton club in 10 years on Winnpeg turf.

Coach Annis Stukus announced this morning the Edmontonians will be shorthanded for the Bomber game.

FIRST-STRING MEN

Ken Moore and Bill Radovich, both first-string line-men, are doubtful starters. Moore is under the weather due to an attack of trench-mouth and Radovich, is afflicted with a cold which the club doctor, Cal Fletcher, terms "serious."

Others missing from the Eskimo line-up will be Jerry Krause, Jim Macrae, Pete King and Nick Albert.

Krause, Macrae and King returned to Edmonton after the Regina game, while Albert is nursing a severe facial injury suffered when Roughriders' Art McEwan kicked him on the chin Saturday.

Likely starting back-fielders will be quarter-back Bill Stukus, halves, Harry Hobbs and Earl Elsey, fullback, Pat West and wing-back Frank Hickey.

ESKIMO LINE

In the line, Stukus expects to start centre Nate Shore; guards Red Stokes and Steve Paproski; tackles Lou Mogul and John Dlugos and ends Dmitri Goloubef and Harry Bunting.

Shore and Mogul are former Blue Bomber stars. Chuck Fenenboch, brilliant running-back from Oakland, California, also has a yen to play quarterback, will substitute for Stukus tonight.

Fenenboch was starting quarterback Saturday as Regina drubbed the Eskimos 13-1.

Light Showers Until Tonight

Cloudy weather with light showers for the next 12 hours is in store for Edmonton and most of southern Alberta.

Wet, cloudy weather was the outcome of what the weatherman termed "a freak low pressure area which developed early today in southern Alberta."

Light rain fell on city streets at 6 a.m. and will probably continue until late this evening, said the forecaster.

Clouds, however, have been predicted to move into eastern Canada sometime tonight and the outlook for tomorrow is for clear weather.

Forecast for today: Cloudy, with light showers with a high of 60.

Polio Death

HAMILTON, Sept. 19. — (CP) — Harley Hunter, 44, of nearby Ancaster, executive secretary of the Hamilton branch of the Red Cross Society, died Saturday of poliomyelitis. He had been in hospital two days.

CHARACTER ACTOR Frank Morgan, known well to three generations of movie-goers, died at his home in Hollywood yesterday. He was 59. His wife, who found him in bed, called an inhalator squad but efforts to revive him were unsuccessful.

Gold-Mining Boom Likely To Result

Devaluation of the Canadian dollar will mean a near-boom for gold-mining in northern Canada, in the opinion of veteran northlander A. M. "Matt" Berry of 8915 100 street.

Mr. Berry said devaluation will be hailed with delight in places like Yellowknife, where gold mining has been strictly on an austerity basis since return of the Canadian dollar to parity a couple of years ago.

TO STIMULATE OUTPUT

He explained that before the rise to parity of the Canadian dollar with the American dollar, Canadian gold producers received $38.50 per ounce in Canadian funds.

As price of gold had been fixed at $35 per ounce in the U.S. Canadian miners immediately lost $3.50 an ounce on all gold produced.

If the Canadian dollar is devaluated 10 per cent or more in American currency, gold production will again be stimulated in the Dominion.

"Devaluation is the best news the mining industry has had in a long time," said Berry.

HELPS BASE METALS

Mr. Berry also believed mining of base metals will be stimulated by devaluation but it is too early to foretell just what the exact results will be.

For instance, Australia produces and exports considerable lead and the Australian pound has been devaluated for some time. Canada may therefore not reap much benefit as regards lead. But mining in general is certain to receive a boost, he said.

Gold mining companies have been operating on the losing side of the ledger since the return of the Canadian dollar to parity and have been receiving some assistance from the federal government. But a price boost such as will automatically follow devaluation will make a great difference, he declared.

Egg Prices Jump Here

Prices of eggs in the city from wholesaler to retail markets jumped about 10 cents a dozen for all grades.

It is direct result of slack supplies being consumed and a tight market developing said one wholesaler.

Soon as old supplies are cleaned off market it is expected the housewife will pay the difference in price.

New prices released by the Dominion Poultry Services this morning were: A large, 69-70c jumped from 58-60; A medium 67-68c from 56-58c; A pullet 48-49c from 46-47c; Grade B's 47-48c from 40c and Grade C's 35c from 32c.

Move Seen By Tonight

By NORMAN M. MACLEOD

OTTAWA, Sept. 19.—(BUP) — Au authoritative source told British United Press at noon today that Finance Minister Douglas Abbott would announce devaluatoin of the Canadian dollar.

The source indicated that the devaluation would be 10 per cent.

SHARP BATTLE

But a sharp conflict of view divided the cabinet on the currency issue, it was learned. It was for this reason that Canada's devaluation step was not announced last night simultaneous with Sir Stafford Cripps' announcement.

The battle within the cabinet was said to have raged all weekend.

The cabinet first met on the matter last Friday night. It continued meetings Saturday until almost midnight. The cabinet was in session again today.

The cabinet was divided into two groups: those who felt Canada should hold to parity, and those who believed British devaluation and the parade of countries which have lowered their currencies made it imperative that Canada follow.

NO ALTERNATIVE

Grudgingly, however, the government as a whole accepted the argument that Canada had no alternative to dropping the value of its dollar, it was learned.

With the inevitability of devaluation conceded, the cabinet debated three possible courses—a free Canadian dollar, a 10-percent devaluation, and a 15 per cent devaluation.

Decision was reached finally upon the middle-course alternative of a 10 per cent devaluation, authoritative sources said.

Fire Razes 4 Buildings

(Special to The Bulletin)

BRETON, Sept. 19.—Fire destroyed four business places at Breton early Sunday morning, as a bulldozer was used to heap burning debris and keep it from spreading.

Fire started in kitchen of the Top Notch Cafe, owned by Mrs. Verma Hanson and destroyed that establishment along with Flyod Maine's barber shop; Andrew Durovecz' shoe and harness repair shop and John Roos' pool room.

Citizens turned out with chemical apparatus and men carried furniture from the barber and shoe shops. Heat cracked windows of McCartney brothers' hardware and the Kelly general store and men and boys climbed roofs and formed bucket brigades to prevent spread of flames to those buildings.

Residents of rooms over the cafe got out safely. Cafe was closed when fire occurred.

Hockey Player Held Witness In Death

MONTREAL, Sept. 19. — (CP) — Tony Demers, former National Hockey League player held as a material witness in the death Friday of a Coaticook, Quebec, woman, was in custody in Montreal today and tonight will be taken to Magog for an inquest into the woman's death.

Dr. J. M. Roussel, Montreal medico-legal expert, performed an autopsy Saturday which showed that there was no skull fracture but that Mrs. Anita Laberge died from a cerebral haemorrhage.

IN SPOTLIGHT TODAY

HUGE SLASH in value of British pound, from $4.03 to $2.80, was announced in London yesterday by Sir Stafford Cripps, left, British Exchequer Chancellor. Results of move will be felt in nearly every pocket book in world, but Canadians still await word from Finance Minister Douglas Abbott, right, on new value of Canadian dollar.

City Shops Uncertain Of U.K. Goods Prices

British goods are going to cost Edmontonians less as a result of Britain's devaluation of the pound.

But no one seems to know how much less.

Predictions here include a sudden gold boom in Alberta's northland, cheeaper English cars, slightly cheaper whisky and fewer immigrants from the "old country" to the Dominion.

WAIT AND SEE

Importers of British goods are adopting a "wait and see" attitude until Ottawa announces devaluation of the Canadian dollar.

They admit, though, that since it is unlikely Canada will devaluate by 30 per cent, British goods will cost less than they do today.

Devaluation of the pound could double the number of British small machine tools and similar equipment competitive in the Canadian market.

Export of British farm machinery to Canada is expected to be increased.

SHOULD BE CHEAPER

All these things should come cheaper to Canadians than they have in the past.

TOUGH PROBLEM

Finding Home Difficult—Not Impossible

Young couples getting married have to find a place to live before the Big Day—and that's a tough job in this city.

Many of them find that using Bulletin want ads is a sure solution to the problem of finding two or three-room suites, for among the thousands who read the new Bulletin's classified advertising pages daily are people who have accommodation for rent.

But not only newlyweds find success in Bulletin want ads.

Bulletin want ads get results no matter what you advertise. Phone 42111 and try them.

Foreign Cash Deals Stopped

Foreign exchange branches of local banks suspended trading this morning, as many Edmontonians sought to obtain American currency at Saturday's rates.

On Saturday, $150 travel ration and other American currency obtained here under Foreign Exchange Control Board permits was available at one-half of one per cent exchange rate.

PAY PREMIUM

Tomorrow, Edmontonians may have to pay a 10 per cent premium on the American currency they obtain.

Local banks were ordered today by the Foreign Exchange Control Board to suspend trading "for the time being" in all foreign currency, including U.S. dollars, pound sterling and European currency.

Banking officials stressed: "The suspension is temporary and trading will be resumed within a few days, possibly tomorrow."

CAN'T CASH CHEQUES

Persons in the city who received cheques or bank drafts from Great Britain or the United States were unable to cash them today.

Banks advised them to keep in close touch with the foreign exchange branches, still open to give information today.

Devaluation of the pound to $2.80 came as a surprise even in banking circles here. Earlier it was anticipated that the pound sterling would be reduced to $3.20.

Stock Trade Active Here

Board rooms of Edmonton brokerage houses were jammed today in line with the stock-buying spree that spread across Canada this morning following the British devaluation of the pound.

Demand was particularly intense, according to some of the dealers for gold stocks "with a Yellowknife flavor." However no record of sales made here could be obtained as all deals are completed on the Toronto Stock Exchange.

Keen interest was also evident in industrial stock of companies with a bulk market in the United States in anticipation of devaluation of the Canadian dollar, some of the dealers added.

In the bullish market, oil stocks proved strong, but otherwise were not unduly affected.

Alberta MP's Son Found Dead

LETHBRIDGE, Alta., Sept. 19—(CP)—Reports reaching here today said the body of Private John Woolley Blackmore, son of the Social Credit member of parliament for Lethbridge, was found on Rock Ridge on the Blood Indian Reserve five miles from Cardston late Saturday. Cardston is 46 miles southwest of here.

Several Indian boys from the nearby St. Paul's Indian school discovered the body of the soldier who had been missing from his home in Cardston for 12 days.

Cause of his death was not ascertained.

Value of Pound Is Slashed to $2.80

(See Other Stories Pages 6 and 11)

LONDON, Sept. 19.—(CP)—Prices of British goods in North American markets will take a sharp drop as a result of devaluation of the pound.

As of last night the pound is worth $2.80 compared with its previous value of $4.03.

The change which had been predicted for months—and denied by official sources up to the last minute—was announced to United Kingdom radio listeners last night by Sir Stafford Cripps, chancellor of the exchequer, just returned from financial consultations in Washington with treasury Secretary Snyder of the United States and finance minister Abbott of Canada.

The chancellor himself had consistently and firmly said "no" to reports that devaluation was pending. Last night he said Britain had been forced into it by the continuing drain on sterling-area holdings of gold and dollars.

TO CHECK DRAIN

It was in hopes of checking this drain that the new rate had been fixed. He said it might be raised "if events prove we have gone down a bit too low."

Secondly, devaluation was aimed at increasing Britain's power to earn dollars, for "that's the only permanent solution for our difficulties—to earn more dollars."

Britain's money move touched off the biggest world-wide round of financial juggling since the dark days of the depression.

Eleven other countries whose trade is closely linked with Britain immediately followed suit in cheapening their money. Others were expected to join soon in the parade.

OTHERS FOLLOW SUIT

Within a few hours after Britain's announcement, similar cuts in the value of their currency were announced by Australia, South Africa, India, New Zealand, Republic of Ireland, Israel, Norway, Denmark, Egypt, Malaya and Burma.

France, Italy, Sweden, Holland, Greece and Finland suspended dealings in foreign exchange. In Canada, linked with trade ties with Britain but whose money follows the U.S. dollar routes, Finance Minister Abbott promised a statement to parliament tonight.

Banks were closed. The London Stock Exchange and those in France, The Netherlands, Greece, South Africa and many other countries were shut down. Foreign exchange trading was forbidden in much of Europe and the sterling area. In London, harried brokers traded stocks and bonds on the sidewalk.

BUSINESS HALTS

Business was at a virtual standstill in this great city which once was the financial and economic heart of the world.

Eastern, U.K. Markets Have Hectic Session

By The Canadian Press

A devaluation boom hit London's financial district today and gold traders went wild on the Toronto market.

But in the United States the news of the cut from $4.00 to $2.80 in the value of the pound sterling brought no major market shake-up.

Loondon's market was closed but there was wild trading on the streets, in the open air. Shouting jobbers added tens of millions of pounds to the market value of gold, industrial and oil shares.

TRADING IN STREETS

The pavements of Throgmorton Street in London's financial district were jammed by 2,000 brokers, jobbers and clerks. Gold shares were hoisted as much as 63 per cent.

In Toronto the trading floor was bedlam. In the first hour the exchange's gold index made a record gain of 9.56 points to 114.63. First-hour volume, at 1,046,000 shares, was the highest in two years.

In Montreal, securities began to level off near noon after a few hectic minutes just after the opening. Mines, however, were retaining the gains they marked up early.

An opening burst of selling hit the New York market but it hit bottom almost immediately and by the end of the morning the market was taking the devaluation news in stride.

Trading slowed after the first few minutes. Gold issues moved ahead as much as a point or more, but sdlightly lower prices were the rule for most other issues at noon.

At Chicago, devaluation brought liquidation in grain futures. Near the end of the first hour wheat was five-eighths cent to 1⅛ cents lower.

Freight Rate Decision Due On Thursday

OTTAWA, Sept. 19. — (CP)—The Board of Transport Commissioners' decision on Canadian railways application for a 20-per-cent increase in freight rates will be handed down at 10 a.m. Thursday.

At the same time, the board will also hand down its ruling on an appeal from its 1948 award of an increase of 21 per cent to the railways.

WAIT-AND-SEE ATTITUDE

Prosperity or Inflation May Follow U.K. Move

By GLENN WILLIAMS

LONDON, Sept. 19.—(AP)—Sears, the janitor at the apartment house where I live, is a little Cockney who earns £5 a week. He has just learned that the pound has been devalued.

The pound was worth $4.03 when he went to the local pub last night. Today, as he went to work, it was worth only $2.80.

But Sears can't tell a bit of difference in the "quid" in his pocket. His quid will buy just as much tomorrow as it did Saturday.

That state of affairs won't last long, however. In a couple of weeks his bread and flour will cost 30 per cent more. Like all Britons, Sears and his family eat a lot of bread.

Other items will have to go up too. That's because about one-sixth of the things Britain buys abroad comes from countries which either won't devalue at all or will do so on a smaller scale.

So Sears will have to strap his belt a little tighter, make his old macintosh last through another rainy winter and forget about that new set of kitchen chairs he was going to buy, simply because prices will go up and he can't afford them.

He may resent this new intrusion into buying power and, ask for a raise. In fact, railwaymen, machinists and several other union groups already are demanding more money to cover the price increases.

If they get their raises it may touch off inflation by raising the cost of production, thus raising prices still more.

Sir Stafford Cripps, chancellor of the exchequer, said over the radio that profiteering and wage increases could not be given without throwing away the gains that are sought from this drastic revision of money values. Gains are anticipated in sales of goods to foreign buyers—export trade by which Britain lives.

Neither Sears, nor the exporter, nor even Sir Stafford will know whether that ideal has been reached until many months have passed—time enough to show whether Britain is moving towards prosperity.

DIABETICS MAY GET INSULIN-FREE DIET

ATLANTIC CITY, Sept. 19.—(AP)—Nearly all people with diabetes can live normal healthy lives without daily shots of insulin, declares a report released tonight by the American Chemical Society.

With a new treatment based on diet, 99 per cent of adults with diabetes can get along without insulin, said Dr. Michael Somocyl, biochemist of the Jewish hospital of St. Louis.

The others may need only a small amount of insulin daily.

Too much insulin can be dangerous, poisoning a diabetic and making him chronically ill through a chemical tug-of-war in his body, Dr Somocyl declared.

This way to freedom from insulin was found during a 14-year study of 4,000 diabetic patients in St. Louis. The main basis is a diet that keeps body weight at the ideal level for a person's age and build. It allows enough starches, sugars and proteins, but cuts down on fats.

Britain Slashes Pound's Value

moil the world has seen since Britain went off the gold standard on another September Sunday night almost 18 years ago to the day.

Prime Minister Attlee held a meeting of ministers during the morning to discuss general business, including arrangements arising out of the devaluation decision.

Sir Stafford insisted the internal value of the pound would not be altered; that is, wages, savings and prices should retain present levels and buying power. The price of bread, however, would have to go up, he said, since most of Britain's wheat and flour comes from North America—principally Canada—and food subsidies, now £465,000,000 ($1,860,000,000) yearly, could not be allowed to increase.

NO OTHER BOOSTS

"Apart from this increase in the price of bread," the chancellor said, "there should not be any noticeable increase in other retail prices, at any rate for the time being."

Banks and stock exchanges will be closed today. It will give a brief breathing space to companies with international dealings, such as transportation firms, to adjust their rates.

Sir Stafford blamed lack of confidence in sterling, encouraged by "talk" which started last spring, for hastening the run on sterling and forcing devaluation.

He said the old method of meeting a crisis would have been to lower prices by "breathing unemployment and bankruptcy" which would have resulted in downward revision of wages. Devaluation was the only alternative.

BLUNT WITH LABOR

Sir Stafford spoke bluntly to hundreds of thousands of workers who are pressing for wage increases. He said nothing must be allowed to increase production costs.

Conservative leader Winston Churchill and his deputy, Anthony Eden, were called in by Sir Stafford and given copies of his announcement before it was broadcast.

Churchill declined all comment but called a Conservative policy meeting for Wednesday to discuss the devaluation.

Both Conservatives and government leaders agreed there was little likelihood of an immediate general election.

Edmontonians undoubtedly will be able to buy English cars cheaper than before. But how much cheaper?

"I have no idea in the world," said the manager of one firm dealing in the tiny autos.

Will they be $300 cheaper? The same man thought you could "cut that figure in half, and be closer to the truth."

RETAILERS UNCERTAIN

Manager of the Irish Linen Store was "at sea" today and couldn't say how the British move would affect imported linens.

She said that the prices on imported goods "have been falling for some months.

"I'll wait and see," she said. "It may make no difference at all."

Britons who have emigrated to Canada in the past have been able to bring a total of £1,250 to the Dominion over a five-year period.

That meant they were able to take $5,000 out of the country.

Their £1,250 now will be worth only $3,500 unless the Canadian dollar is devaluated.

SERIOUS CUT

Britons visiting Canada will still be allowed only £5 for their Canadian trip. Whereas this was worth $20 before, today it is worth only $14.

Most merchants and importers refused to comment except to say "British goods should be cheaper."

"I only know what I read in the papers," said one. "We'll have to wait and see what happens."

U.S. Chiefs By-Pass City

United States military joint chiefs of staff who have been in the far north inspecting defence installations by-passed Edmonton on their return to Washington late last week.

The high-ranking party included: Gen. Omar N. Bradley, chairman; Gen. Hoyt S. Vandenberg, USAF; Gen. J. Lawton Collins, U.S. army, and Vice-Admiral Arthur D. Struble, deputy chief of naval operations.

The chiefs were supported by 13 officers from different technical branches of the services.

It is believed the return was hastened by arrival in Washington of Air Marshal Lord Tedder, chief of staff of the Royal Air Force.

It is understood the British air marshal will inspect United States installations and later visit Canada for similar inspections.

The American party stopped briefly in Edmonton about two weeks ago en route to Alaska and the Aleutians.

U.K. Hopes to Capture Markets in America

By Forbes Rhude
Canadian Press Business Editor

Britain today turned to an all-out invasion of North American markets, with a cut in the value of her pound sterling from $4.03 to $2.80.

She hopes to pour in enough goods to earn enough dollars to pay for the things she wants here, including Canadian food products.

Briefly, very briefly, the effect of devaluation is to make Britain's goods cheaper in other countries, especially those with highly-valued currencies like the United States and Canada.

It also has the effect of making it more expensive for Britain to buy in these areas, and this was one thing which deterred her from devaluation before this. Now, apparently, she feels she can risk it.

CRIPPS HELD BACK

As was predictable, Sir Stafford Cripps held back from devaluation until it was a part of a broader program which gives promise of easing the factors which made the pound weak.

Pound devaluation alone will affect the pocket books and ways of life of nearly every one on earth

What does it mean to Canada?

If it indeed means putting world trade on . sound basis, then it adds up to good for Canada, no matter what inconveniences, and some of them may be considerable, which may result.

Building Total Up $300,000

City building permits today received a $300,000 shot in the arm, with a 29-house project and a second $80,000 Safeway supermarket.

T. H. Hough, of 11334-78 avenue, took out permits for 29 new homes to be built in the area of 111 street and 71 avenue, worth $222,000.

Safeway Stores Ltd. was granted a permit for a 94 by 100-foot supermarket at 82 avenue and 109 street. The same concern has already taken a permit for a 75 by 125-foot supermarket at Jasper and 94 street. Dominion Construction are contractors, and Neil McKenan architect.

Unofficial Work Halt Hits U.S. Coal Mines

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 19.—(AP)—Angry miners stayed away from the pits in droves today in an unofficial work stoppage supporting demands for renewed pension and welfare benefits.

Work whistles shrilled at Western-Pennsylvania pits without any diggers showing up to start the 6 a.m. shift.

Most of the 480,000 hard and soft coal diggers in the United Mine Workers' union are expected to be idle by tonight. Their new slogan is "No Pensions, No Work."

BENEFITS CUT

Soft coal miners began the work stoppage over the week-end. They were aroused by Union President John L. Lewis' order suspending the $100-a-month pensions to aged miners and other benefit payments. Lewis said the fund is running low. It's all part of his fight for a new contract.

No orders were issued by the UMW to stop work but miners in Pennsylvania and West Virginia failed to show up at many pits for the midnight shift.

At least five mines owned by the United States Steel Corporation were idle today in the Pittsburgh area.

Nearly all of Pennsylvania's 80,000 hard coal miners quit working in sympathy with the soft coal workers.

Car Overturns, Woman Injured

RED DEER, Alta., Sept. 19.—(CP)—Mrs. Norman Bunch of Red Deer suffered a fractured collarbone when the car in which she was riding with her husband overturned on the Sylvan Lake highway yesterday afternoon.

Mr. Bunch escaped with minor cuts. The car was badly damaged. A mechanical defect in the steering apparatus was believed responsible for the accident.

Taxi Driver Is Murdered

PORT ARTHUR, Sept. 19.—(CP)—The body of taxi-driver Harold B. Hamilton, 39, was found behind a clump of bushes near the city limits here yesterday. There was a bullet hole in the neck.

Acting police chief James Hutcheon said Hamilton had been murdered. No trace of a weapon was found.

A passer-by found the body at 2 p.m. The taxi which Hamilton operated was parked about 100 feet away with the motor still running.

Fellow drivers said Hamilton had picked up a fare shortly after 11 a.m. and on the car's two-way radio had told the dispatcher he was going to a street in the west end, about two miles from the spot where the body was found.

ANOTHER LOSS

Two University of Alberta chemical engineering graduates are visiting Edmonton for a few days, getting immigration visas from the U.S. consul so they can move to the U.S. They are Douglas Wordie and Hugh Currie. Mr. Currie recently received his master's degree from the University of Colorado. Mr. Wordie received his Ph.D. degree from U. of California at Berkeley, Cal., and will work for the Texas Oil Co. in New York State.

WINS HONOR

University of Alberta's Dr. W. Scott, dean of the faculty of medicine, was elected second vice president of the Association of Medicine Schools of Canada. The association's elections were held Saturday in Quebec City. Dr. Scott will serve a two-year terms of office.

CAMPBELL ILL

Former Bulletin publisher Charles E. Campbell, 64, will be up and about in two or three days, according to his doctor. Mr. Campbell was admitted to Royal Alexandra hospital last Monday, and underwent an abdominal operation Saturday. He was reported "resting comfortably" today.

INSPECTION

Military training operations from Chilliwack to Nanaimo will be visited during the week by Western Army Command and North West Air Command public relations officers on liaison duty. Capt. A. L. Ferguson and Flt. Lt. F. E. McLaren will leave for the coast points over the week-end.

ON VISIT

General manager of The Howell Forwarding Co., Ottawa, H.B. Ganton is a business visitor in the city. He is conferring with R.W. MacCosham, manager of MacCosham Storage and Distributing Co.

AT CEREMONY

Former Calgary alderman, Reg. G. Smith, was in Edmonton to attend St. John Ambulance Association functions here Saturday. Mr. Smith has been associated with St. John Ambulance work for many years, and is vice-president of J. J. Gibbons Ltd., advertising agency.

ON CRUISE

Off today for one month cruise to the Panama Canal and southern waters is the province's newly-appointed director of boys' activities D. R. 'Doc' McNaughton.

The former city probation officer is a Stoker Petty Officer in the naval reserve.

During the war he served in HMCS Prince David, a landing craft mother ship. He took part in invasions at Normandie, southern France and Greece.

CHANCE VISIT

Sudden tactical shift of RCAF planes and crews between Montreal and Edmonton provided Flt. Sgt. A. L. Englebert of Montreal with a chance to visit his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Ramsay of 11226-67 street.

OFF TO U.S.

Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Thomas, rural Edmonton, have left on an extended visit to the United States. Mr. Thomas, secretary of the Alberta Shorthorn Association, will join the staff of the Alberta Livestock Co-operative on his return.

FLY TO SPOKANE

Don McKay, executive secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, yesterday flew to Spokane with a group of Edmonton aviation men to attend the International Aviation Planning Council annual meeting Sept. 18-20.

In the group was Tom P. Fox, E. A. Cawker and Gordon L. Best. They will be joined by Wop May, who with Mr. McKay, will be Edmonton's official delegates.

HAS PRAISE

Robert Andison, clerk of the Alberta legislative assembly, has words of praise for the new Bulletin's Church of The Open Air service yesterday at Starlite Drive-In Theatre. Mr. Andison, Mrs. Andison and Clinic Nurse Mae Griffith, participated in the unique service from seats in the Andison family car.

NEW HEAD

Highly successful University employment service — which placed about 1,500 students in jobs this summer—will be headed this year by Jack Washburn, U of A graduate and national employment service employers relations consultant. John Grodeland, who headed the service for the past three years, will resume former duties as special placements officer.

BACK TO WORK

Deputy minister of education, Dr. W. H. Swift, returned today from Fredericton, N.B., where he was among provincial government officials attending the Canadian Educational Association convention.

Liquor Prices Dip Slightly

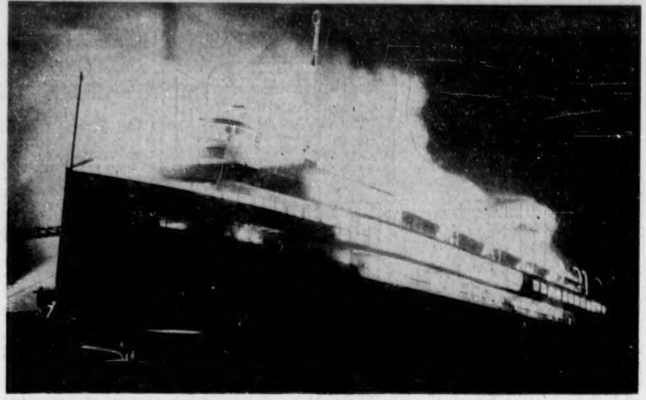
The one-third devaluation in the pound will not mean a like reduction in the price of Scotch whisky and other liquor imported from the sterling area, it was learned here today.

The price is not expected to be lowered much more than 25 cents a bottle. It will not come into effect for several months.

"The initial cost represents only a fraction of the final price," explained A. J. Mason, chairman of the Alberta liquor control board.

Dominion sales tax, customs duties, marine insurance and shipping costs make up the best part of the price on the shelf.

Board officials expect to announce the new price tomorrow.



SCENE OF HORROR, pleasure ship Noronic, bound for last St. Lawrence cruise of season, was inferno of flames within 15 minutes after it caught fire at Toronto dock early Saturday morning, claiming at least 200 lives in century's worst Great Lakes shipping disaster. Valiant fire-fighters manned fire boats to take hundreds of 479 known survivors to safety but believe at least 50 bodies are caught in sunken debris, below submerged stern or entombed in burned-out cabins. Grief-stricken relatives thronged temporary morgue at Canadian National Exhibition today to identify dead as department of transport began first formal inquiry into disaster, and Red Cross officials sent appeals to every major American city for unlisted survivors to reports. U. of Alberta to Honor Three Western Canadians

Three Western Canadians will become honorary doctors of law of the University of Alberta at Fall Convocation on Oct. 22.

They are A. Balmer Watt, of Edmonton, James Fowler, of Calgary, and L. B. Thomson, OBE, of Regina.

Degrees will be conferred by Dr. G. F. McNally, University chancellor, and Mr. Watt will give the Convocation address.

Mr. Watt was selected by the Varsity senate to represent the group of 364 graduates who were members when the university held its first convocation on October 13, 1908.

All remaining members of the group have been invited to attend this fall's convocation.

Arthur Balmer Watt, to be presented to the Chancellor by F. P. Galbraith, editor and publisher of the Red Deer Advocate, is a native of Brantford, Ont.

A graduate of University of Toronto, he began his career as reporter with the Brantford Expositor and transferred to the St. Thomas Journal.

He was editor and part owner of the Woodstock Sentinel-Review before coming to Edmonton in 1905, where he established and published the Edmonton Saturday News, Edmonton Daily Capital, and Alberta Homestead.

In 1912 he joined the Edmonton Journal as associate editor. He was later editor, until his retirement in 1945 as editor emeritus.

James Fowler, who will be presented by Deputy Minister of Education Dr. W. H. Swift, is principal of the Provincial Institute of Technology and Art in Calgary.

Born and educated in Scotland, he graduated from Edinburgh University and the Church of Scotland Teacher Training College.

He has taught in Edinburgh, Olds school of agriculture, Crescent Heights high school in Calgary, and was school inspector at Wainwright and Calgary.

In 1941 he became principal of the Provincial ITA.

L. B. Thomson, OBE, a native of New Zealand, was educated in Alberta, and graduated from U of A in agriculture in 1925. He will be presented to the Chancellor by H. P. Wright, president of both the Canadian and Alberta Seed Growers Associations.

Young Canadian Star Here For Big Concert

What happens to Canadian musical artists who go to the United States to find fame and fortune?

Usually they find the going pretty tough.

That's the word from Morley Margolis, 27-year-old ex-Winnipeg baritone who sings here tonight at the Sales Pavilion.

Now headed for New York after a summer singing at the Banff Springs Hotel and the Chateau Lake Louise, Margolis' concert tonight is being sponsored by the Women's Musical Club.

Tickets are on sale today at Heintzman's and will be on sale tonight at the Pavilion.

Mr. Margolis is headed for his third year in New York City.

Although the young Canadian baritone found fame and success in his native country—he did quite a bit of CBC radio work, appeared in numerous operatic productions, and last winter won the famous "Singing Stars of Tomorrow" radio contest—he, like many other Canadians, didn't find the going too smooth south of the border.

"It takes a little while to learn the ropes, because the field is so competitive," he said in an interview yesterday.

"You have to know the right channels, who to get in touch with. Radio is pretty well closed. Agents want the 'big names' for the commercial programs."

"Americans want to do a lot for Canadians who go to the big U.S. cities," said Mr. Margolis.

MORLEY MARGOLIS
. . . A concert.

"But unfortunately most Canadians are not prepared, because they have had so little experience in Canada"

His advice is for a Canadian artist to get as much experience as he can, though admittedly there is not enough opportunity in this country.

In the meantime, he's getting ready for tonight's concert, which Women's Musical Club officials say should prove top-notch.

VARSITY PROF HARD HIT BY POUNDS

Britons who came to Canada in recent years to live certainly aren't happy about devaluation of the pound.

Take the case of one University of Alberta professor.

He, like other Britons, has only been allowed to take out of Britain £250 a year, because of restrictions.

This week-end, he was all ready to transfer another £250 ($1,000 before devaluation) out of Britin to Canada.

But after devaluation, his $1,000 in British money is just worth $700.

If devaluation had just waited three more days, he would have been $300 better off.

Three Thefts Over Weekend

One case of breaking and entering and two cases of theft involving $40, a watch, and two overcoats were reported to police over the week-end.

Theft of the overcoats was reported by a Belgian displaced person, Gotfried Plovic, who said they were stolen from his buggy which he left Saturday at the city market.

Plovic operates a stall at the market. He lives on the Clover Bar highway one mile east of the city limits.

G. W. Symington, manager of Inglewood service station, 12326-111 avenue, reported his station was broken into about 12:45 p.m. Sunday. The office and cars in the station were ransacked but nothing of value appeared to be stolen.

Martin Monson reported a prowler entered his room in a 98 street rooming house Saturday morning and stole $40 in cash and a 17-jewel watch.

Military Note

The 19th Alberta Armored Car Regiment will parade at Railhead at 7:45 p.m. tonight. Usual pick-ups will be maintained.

Weekend Assault Cases Probed

Three Edmonton Men Suffer Attack And Robbery

City police are investigating three week-end assault cases.

J. G. Fullerton of 10957 88 avenue reported he was set upon by two men he picked up in his car when returning Sunday evening from a local golf club.

Another man claimed he was struck over the head with a whisky bottle and robbed as he lay asleep in his hotel room Sunday afternoon.

Third assault victim was attacked when leaving his home Saturday night.

Fullerton said his passenger struck him over the head, stealing his car, money and watch. He was left unconscious in the bush near the railhead north of the city.

Several hours later he regained consciousness and walked to a nearby service station, he told police.

Leslie Major told police he was sleeping in his room Sunday afternoon when two men entered his room in a down-town hotel and struck him with a bottle.

He was knocked out by the blow, he said. When he started to grapple, one of the assailants seized him by the throat and choked him.

The other went through his pockets and ransacked the room. When they could find no money they left with a pair of shoes valued at $21.50.

Major said they did not discover several bills he carried in his watch-pocket.

He described one man as about 30, slim and blonde. The other was about 35, dark and heavy.

The third victim was Mike Rogal, 10129 95 street, who told police he was set upon as he was leaving his home Saturday night.

The attacker struck him in the face, knocking him down, and threatened to kick him if he did not "behave himself."

Rogal said the same man had once marched him out of a 96 street cafe at the point of a revolver, saying he was a detective.

He described the man as short, husky and blonde.

Policy Said Phony

An Edmonton man was committed for trial in Supreme Court Saturday on two charges of posing as a provincial government health insurance agent.

Both complainants were from New Sarepta. They testified that Lynn Phillips of Edmonton sold them health insurance policies while posing as a government employe.

Policies were sold in June and July, 1948.

Attack on Arthritis

Sufferers from arthritis, which has already crippled some 600,000 Canadians, will be encouraged by the vigorous attack on the disease outlined by the Canadian Arthritis and Rheumatism Society.

The program of the society comprises the promotion of research towards the discovery of a cure, the distribution of fellowships to encourage more professional study of the disease, the establishment of special treatment centres, the enlistment of greater government assistance and the provision of mobile physiotherapy services.

All this indicates a determination to bring relief to the more than 600,000 Canadians who suffer from a disease which, up until recently, has been the most neglected of all major ailments.

The success of the Canadian Arthritis and Rheumatism Society will depend upon the support of the public.

For instance, all Canadians should be aware that while strikes account for a loss of some 2,400,000 working days in a year, rheumatic diseases are responsible for a loss of some 9,500,000 working days in a year plus $54,000,000 in wages.

Many more millions are spent on medical care and for maintenance of invalids.

The number of days lost from work through rheumatic diseases equals that of an army of 30,000 continuously unemployed and this does not include those so seriously disabled that they are not employed at all.

Arthritis, then, is a serious factor in the slowing up of production. It is a drag on national wealth and prosperity.

For economic as well as compassionate reasons, the fight against arthritis should be given every possible public assistance.

Teaching Highest Profession

When Dean M. E. LaZerte tells the Canadian Education Association in Fredericton that Canada can never hope to secure the 66,000 new teachers she will need in the next five years without paying them salaries commensurate with those of other professions, he puts his finger on the weakest spot in the Canadian educational system.

For it is impossible to treat teachers as hired hands.

Teaching is an arduous profession that requires infinite training and consummate capacity.

It is perhaps the highest profession of all because all other professions stem from it.

Without adequate teaching, the other professions could not exist.

But teaching should be accorded the dignity and the financial rewards suitable to a profession that is the cornerstone of democracy.

Until it is accorded those things, education will fall into a serious condition.

Battle Over 'Giveaways' Begins

The legal battle over the order of the Federal Communications Commission that "giveaway" radio shows should be forbidden in the United States after October 1 has commenced in the federal courts with an injunction.

The order will not become operative, says the injunction, until three federal judges rule on the authority of the Commission to make such a regulation.

Whether the courts finally uphold the order against "giveaways" or whether they extend the injunction, the great mass of public opinion in the United States, as well as of Canadian listeners, will applaud the effort to purge radio of the type of program which attempts to advertise merchandise by exciting the cupidity of the public.

"Giveaway" shows are intrinsically harmful because they appeal to that weakness in human nature which looks continually for something for nothing.

They debauch public integrity and place merchandising on the very lowest possible plane.

Moreover, with the exception of such programs as "Twenty Questions," which is a scintillating exception to the rule, most "giveaway" shows are stupid, misleading and boisterously unfunny.

The majority of the American and Canadian people will hope that, in the words of Fred Allen, radio will be taken out of the garbage can and given back to the comedians.

Too Much MacArthur in Japan

The grave view taken by the majority of Australians of General Douglas MacArthur's recent fulsome praise for the Japanese raises the very serious question as to whether the administration in Japan may not be too much of a one man show.

It is true that the Far Eastern Commission, composed of Americans, Australians and others, nominally controls the policy of the victors in the rehabilitation of the conquered country.

But MacArthur, for all practical purposes, is almost the sole arbiter of it.

It was the purpose of the occupation to so arrange affairs in Japan that the will to war in the Japanese people might be eradicated by economic, social and political adjustments.

No other reason exists for the continued occupation of Japan.

And if that purpose is not fulfilled, the occupation is a decided failure, no matter what optimistic views may be aired by Genera MacArthur.

Australia unofficially charges that those views are too optimistic, that the Japanese are systematically pulling the wool over the general's eyes.

Whether Australia is right or wrong, her critics advance a viewpoint that cannot be dismissed hurriedly as mere racial predudice.

Far too much is at stake, not only for Australia and the United States, but for Canada as well, to ignore the implication that General MacArthur has got too close to his job and is failing to see the results in perspective.

MacArthur is, beyond doubt, an exceptionally capable man.

But there is such a thing as even a capable man going stale on his job.

There is such a thing as too much authority concentrated in one individual leading to mistakes that could have widespread international consequence.

The Australian charge demands fullest investigation.

War Games in Germany Provoke Europe Unrest

THOMPSON

I cannot conceive of anything less conducive to peace than the war games being staged by the United States army, navy and air force in Germany, or of anything more likely to disaffect the European peoples from America or furnish the Soviet Union with a more powerful psychological weapon in the cold war.

The most effective Soviet propaganda is that the Atlantic Pact and European co-operation with the United States mean war.

As if to support this the U.S. is putting on a sham war in Germany, between two armies, one formed of U.S. constabulary, in distinctive dress, called "the aggressors" and obviously simulating the Soviets, and the other in the uniforms of the United States armed forces.

Everything is being done to give the sham war the appearance of awful reality.

Mythical intelligence reports are coming in to "headquarters" revealing that "Nuremberg and Wurzburg"—both ghost cities from the last war; their death's-head faces testaments of war's horror—have been captured (again!.

The aggressors are reported to have extended their line through Fulda, Wertheim, Mergentheim, etc., and to be outflanking Frankfort. Even colorful enemy generals are invented. Troops are moved. Airplanes zoom overhead. And in every way the cold war is translated into the horrors of a hot one.

Warning Intended

All this is intended as a warning to the Soviet Union. But it is far more likely to be interpreted as a deliberate and arrogant provocation—not only by the Russians, but by the European peoples.

The Russians also bandy the word "aggressor," and also arm "only for defense."

What would be our own reaction, I wonder, if the Russians put on such a war game, with simulated Western troops, in Poland Czechoslovakia, Hungary, Rumania, Bulgaria and Eastern Germany?.

Would we interpret it as a warning or a provocation? Would such a move by the Russians lead us to reduce our defense appropriations or to double them?

The people of Western Germany have just elected a government and acquired some of the attributes of a sovereign state.

This was granted in the hope of effecting an eventual reconciliation between Germany and the West.

Now, in the most vivid and direct manner, we are showing the Germans that the role assigned their country in case of a conflict will be that of a battleground.

Over all Germany armies will rage and ravage, and bombs will rip open unhealed scars. Of course, in the end, virtue will triumph, but what conceivable consolation can that be for a land and people bled beyond any hope of recovery?

The psychological effect on the German people must be devastating. The demands for absolute German neutrality — desired by the Russians, and promoted by such German diplomats as Herr Nadolny—will certainly grow, and be echoed in many other European countries, including France.

For, believe it or not, the masses of the people in Europe prefer any kind of government, Nazi or Communist, to atomic bombs.

War With Russia

We are in a political war with Russia, and the imminent danger is not that Soviet armies will invade Europe, but that they will win the political struggle through movements and changes of heart within countries.

The Russian political strategy is to have American and British influence and power turned out of the continent by the peoples themselves.

Nothing, it seems to me, could contribute more to this than the staging of a dress rehearsal of war in the middle of Europe.

It is a political act, which will have political consequences, and they will not be advantageous to us.

What Europe needs is calm confidence, not a deliberately induced attack of the jitters.

One can only wonder who thought this up?

The U.S. war department? The chiefs of staff of the Atlantic Pact countries? What does the state department think? Or the Western European foreign offices? Who makes such decisions?

Smiles

The neighborhood borrower approached Mr. Smith Sunday noon and inquired:

"Say, Smith are you using your lawnmower this afternoon?"

Yes, I am," Smith replied warily.

"Fine. Then you won't be wanting your golf clubs—I'll just borrow them."

Congesting Traffic

Editor, Bulletin.—Dear "Protestant" protests the imprisonment of the seven Baptist ministers. According to [illegible] write up I read, the seven ministers held a service where it was conjesting traffic and tying up things in general and were asked to move on because of this reason—which I believe they refused.

You can't go down town here or any place to my knowledge and have an open air gathering which will tie up traffic and cause congestion on a busy thoroughfare without special permission from the city.

I'm a Protestant too but I believe in fighting fair and if you're finding fault be sure of your facts.

If this is true you will have to revise all the laws of all the provinces as at no time have I known a public gathering allowed at any busy centre religious or non-religious unless in war or given consent by the city.

Social Credit

Editor, Bulletin—We much appreciate the fact that Mr. H. E. Nichols should, through your open forum, endeavor to teach us a little about the fundamental principles of Social Credit.

For all these years we have believed that SC was entirely devoid both of fundamentals and of principles. We have thought of it, in the minds of Alberans, as a fog over a swamp. Their constantly reiterated statement, which is the foundation of all the SC ballerdash is itself a fallacy. Social Crediters have never ceased to say "there is never enough money put into circulation in the course of pro duction to buy back the product."

How silly that sounds at a time like 1932 when we put six dollars of spot cash feed into the production of a pig and sold it for three dollars. There was twice as much money put into circulation as would buy back the product.

If having ample funds to buy back the product is the ideal of SC the Alberta public should have been rolling in clover in those times when the farmer put more money into the production of grain and livestock than would buy back the product. But instead of that, it was the worst situation we have experienced.

Now, we would like Mr. Nichols to demonstrate to us how he can believe Major Douglas' fundamental A plus B theory when it is as plain as A-B-C that in 1932 we put twice as much money into the production of a porker as would buy back the whole pig.

Trivia

Up to now visitors to Britain have had to pay purchase tax on articles of apparel bought for use there. Canadian and U.S. citizens on a temporary visit to the United Kingdom may obtain relief from purchase tax on clothing, hats, shoes and gloves (and certain other articles of apparel) not made of fur through a new scheme which became operative August 22, 1949. Visitors, on exchanging dollars (or drawing sterling from an American or Canadian account) at a bank, will on request, be given free of charge five purchase tax coupons for every complete £24 ($96) so exchanged up to a maximum of 100 coupons a person in any period of 12 months. Each coupon will enable a visitor to buy, tax free, up to £1 ($4) worth of apparel of the kinds mentioned.

Fair Play

Editor, Bulletin — There have been quite a few articles published lately in regard to Sunday milk delivery. There are also some women's organizations demanding that milk be delivered on Sunday.

I wonder if any of these women are the wives of milkmen, or any other man that has to work on Sunday. It's not a very pleasant Sunday at home alone, is it?

I think every woman likes to have her husband at home on Sunday so she could go to church with him and spend the rest of the day with their family.

Let me tell you, first, I have no frig, nor well to keep my milk in. There are a lot of confectionary stores and lunch counters open Sundays in every neighborhood. I'm certain of that, especially around where people live in apartments, They can very easily get their milk there on Sundays.

Its very nice to go out for a walk and at the same time pick up some milk on their way home.

So let the poor milkman have his Sunday at home, for it is meant for rest and peace as many others do.

JUST ME.

A man that hath friends must shew himself friendly: and there is a friend that sticketh closer than a brother.—Proverbs 18.24.

From Today's News

By DE WITT MACKENZIE

The urgency of concluding a Japanese treaty has developed the startling possibility that the democracies may get ahead with the job without Russia unless a quick solution of the disagreement with Moscow can be found.

Should this happen it would of course mean two distinct treaties—another stone added to the wall dividing the totalitarian states and the democracies.

The stalemate hinges on Russia's insistence that the treaty be concluded by the Big Four Foreign Ministers' Council (Britain, the United States, Russia and France), whereas Britain and the United States insist that it be handled by the Far Eastern Commission.

This commission comprises the 11 countries that fought against Japan—the United States, Britain, Canada, Russia, France, China, the Philippines, The Netherlands, Australia, India and New Zealand.

The Russian attitude may be explained largely by the fact that the veto is permitted in Council proceedings, whereas it is not used in the Commission.

On one thing there appears to be unanimity—the need of getting ahead with the job.

The necessity of early action was emphasized recently by Gen. Douglas MacArthur, supreme allied commander in Japan, for the second time.

And in addition to that the conversations in Washington last week between Foreign Secretary Bevin of Britain and State Secretary Acheson of the United States reached the conclusion that a Japanese treaty is long overdue.

And Foreign Minister Vishinsky of Russia, who is heading the Russian delegation to the new United Nations meeting opening tomorrow in New York, is expected to press for a Japanese treaty—to be made by the Foreign Ministers' Council.

Acheson has indicated that Britain and the United States may try again to end the two-year-old deadlock over who should draft the treaty. And what if this effort fails?

As the signs now read, the question then will arise whether the allies represented on the Far Eastern Commission, headed by Britain and the United States, shall go ahead and make a treaty with Japan without Russia, Certainly London and Washington can't be expected to agree that far eastern countries like Austrailia and the Philippines, which had more to do with the Japanese war than did Russia, shall be left out of the treaty-making

Province Is Cleared On Shelter Rates

Following my column of Sept. 15, dealing with the question of multiple responsibility for juveniles in detention homes and shelters, Frank Drayton, Edmonton City Relief Department, advises that it is not accurate to say that the province pays the city on a scale set by the province and which is not financially fair to the city.

The rate which the province pays the city, Mr. Drayton says, "was set by city officials and is eminently fair to all concerned, and no objection has been raised by either party concerned."

In view of former complaints that these rates were not adequate, it is certainly generous of Mr. Drayton to clear the province on this score because it relieves the provincial department from any responsibility, apart from seeing to it that the city fulfills all provincial requirements.

It also makes it clear that the province has every reason to expect the city to provide all needed facilities without any further assistance.

This clarifies one aspect of this whole business, because it follows that if there is any complaint regarding these facilities, it will be possible to look directly to the city for a remedy.

Some Question If Necessary

Mr. Drayton raises a further point. Since at the moment the city has control of a very few children, there may be some question, he says, "as to whether the operation of a recognized shelter is necessary, but we do not anticipate any trouble from the provincial government on this point."

It may be that there are only a few children involved, but this does not mean that there will not be more tomorrow or next week or next month. It would therefore seem unwise to consider discarding the use of a "recognized shelter" so long as there was any possibility of children needing it, certainly not until some satisfactory alternative had been adopted.

It may seem to Mr. Drayton to be a considerable undertaking for just a few children and yet can any community take the risk of having no children's shelter?

There is one further point upon which I must definitely disagree with Mr. Drayton's comment. With regard to the South-Side Detention Home he states that this is operated on the "honor system" because the Superintendent refuses to risk adverse publicity for keeping the inmates locked up.

There was criticism of the South Side detention home, but it was not criticism of detaining the youngsters but rather of the way in which they were detained which is quite a different matter.

There can be a vast difference between methods of detaining juveniles. There is a vast difference between detaining them and simply turning them loose as happened recently when a small girl was reportedly attacked by an inmate who was at liberty on the "honor system" in spite of him reportedly having a previous record for such conduct.

Some Restraint Necessary

While no person would condone, or even suggest either harsh or improper detention, there is every reason to demand that the authorities see to it that persons who have had to be sent to a detention home for wrongdoing are prevented from freely injuring others.

If the authorities have no intention of protecting the public from such persons, then it is time they said so and let parents know they can not count upon their children being safe at any time. But if the authorities intend to provide some form of restraint in the case of such offenders so that the public will be protected, then it is time that this nonsense about an honor system be stopped.

On this I am diametrically opposed to Mr. Drayton's views, and if those views reflect the official attitude of the city administration it will not be long before other inmates take advantage of their freedom to cause still more and even more serious harm.

Idle Pecking On Store Typewriters

Man's continual groping for self-expression takes on a number of curious forms, but none more curious than you may observe at any department store which sells typewriters.

I find it worth the time to tarry by the counter of one store where there are a half dozen portables on display, each with paper conveniently rolled in for experimental purposes. Apparently it takes a strong will to pass without a few tentative pecks.

Nearly everyone types either "Now is the time for all good men to come to the aid of the party" or simply their name, a modest bid for immortality, like carving their initials on a park bench.

But there is the fruit of imagination here, too. The other day (in a smart, grey Underwood) I noticed that someone had typed the message, "This is a nice September day." Directly below—and clearly typed by an amateur—was "It sure is." Another anonymous message, "Gerry B. is a jerk," "Arthur loves Enid," "Baby, it's cold outside," and a gloomy notation, "Into the valley of death . . ."

A vertible mother lode for a psychologist.

Tall Wall

One of the nicest, most optimistic gestures I can remember took place in our block this week—one of those gestures doomed to defeat, but worth a crack, anyway.

The new people in the block threw a let's-get-acquainted-party for all the immediate neighbors, I wasn't able to attend, but they tell me it went off pleasantly enough and the host introduced several people who had lived a shout apart for many years without ever managing to meet.

The futility of this sort of thing lies in the fact that mere geographic proximity does not tend to bring people together, but, rather, to isolate them. The ranchers whose thousand acres adjoin are always closer neighbors than the people who live across the apartment hall.

In the city, neighbors more frequently end up in police court than in each other's affection and, aware of this, live in peace only by living in polite, but firm isolation.

The formal nod across the fence is not a matter of being unfriendly, but simply the cautious greeting of a man who knows he may have to complain one day about a vacuum cleaner lousing up his radio reception.

The English, of course, have reduced such cheek-to-jowl living to a precise science and families frequently go through several generations without introductions although separated only by a small hedge.

When he was on his visit here Beverley Baxter, the Canadian-born British member of parliament, told friends about his own neighbor, a gentleman he has yet to confront face to face. When the stone wall between their properties was destroyed during the blitz both parties were aghast at the necessity of opening negotiations.

The wall was finally rebuilt the British way—with both parties decently represented by solicitors.

Bird Trick

The ornithology periodicals are in a tizzy about picture windows. Seems that a great many birds, even the smartest species, are bashing their brains out trying to fly through heavy plate glass.

In New York, a spokesman for the National Audoban Society has suggested that birds see a reflection of trees, bush and sky in the windows and think they're going to fly through the house. Unless you rule out suicide this sounds like a logical explanation.

This authority is not very worried about it. "When you consider that common house cats may take a hundred million birds a year, you can understand what a minor menace windows are," he says.

The trouble with this reasoning is that it ignores the anguish of the owner of the picture window who, confronted by a wounded bird on his lawn, feels a deep helplessness. Perhaps a book on first aid for birds should be given with each picture window.

I mention these details because I am still plunged in gloom about the small bird that flew into our picture window and the complete failure of my emergency treatment. The bird hit with an awful wallop and we rushed out to find him on the ground and not long for this world.

We brought him into the house, put him in some cotton batten in a chocolate box and straightened out his broken wing. When his breathing became heavier we phoned a lady who has a way with canaries and she suggested we give the bird a drop of brandy with an eye-dropper.

The bird opened his bill obligingly, took his medicine like a little man, then abruptly hopped from the chocolate box with a wild and hilarious look in his eye and fell dead.

I like to think he died happy, but it is small consolation.

NO HIC for Robert Meier, 25, of St. Louis, Mo. Tanker Safe, Under Repair

HALIFAX, Sept. 19.—(CP)—The United States tanker Merrimac was freed from an under-water ledge off the south coast of Cape Breton Island yesterday. She later anchored across Canso Strait in Habitants Bay where her hull will be examined.

Meanwhile, the Canadian navy frigate Swansea had a tow-line aboard the disabled RCAF tug Malahat near the entrance to Hudson Strait and was heading for Goose Bay, Labrador.

The 10,000-ton Merrimac rammed the reef in dense fog early Friday while en route to Montreal with 5,000,000 gallons of gasoline. She lost 500,000 gallons while aground.

The Malahat broke down Friday while on a supply tour of northern bases. Swansea had been winding up an Arctic training cruise when diverted to the tug's aid.

Printers Vote Strike Ended In Chicago

CHICAGO, Sept. 19—(AP)—AFL printers today voted to end their 22-month-old strike against five Chicago newspapers. The vote was 1,287 to 279.

After the vote results were announced, the strikers sealed their action by adopting a motion declaring the strike ended.

The unionists, who held sessions before and after the balloting, heard reading of a memorandum agreement between the publishers and union officials that strikers would be put back to work as rapidly as possible.

Devaluation Move Welcomed by U.S.

U.K. Goods To Sell Cheaper As British Costs To Mount

By John M. Hightower

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.—(AP)—United States officials yesterday welcomed devaluation of the pound. They cautioned, however, that they consider it only one of a series of measures necessary to control Britain's economic difficulties.

Two immediate effects — one good, the other bad, from Britain's viewpoint—are expected by responsible authorities.

One effect is that it will lower the price of Britain's goods which are sold to the United States, Canada and other foreign countries, and make them more competitive.

The same is true for other countries which quickly fell in line and devalued.

BRITAIN'S COSTS UP

The other obvious effect is that the British buyer has to pay more for his imports into Britain and Britain's cost of doing business will therefore be increased insofar as this factor has an effect.

Britain could meet this increased cost in either of two ways apparently. She may pass it on to the ultimate consumer who would either have to spend more or lower his living standard, or the government may subsidize the increased import cost so that the price of goods within Britain remains about the same.

In general, a devaluation move is designed to bring a country's currency into line with the country's economic and financial position in the world.

ESSENTIAL ACTION

American officials have been convinced for months that action by Britain was essential sooner or later to provide a new relationship between the pound sterling and the dollar.

The aticipation of this action by business men was one of the contributing causes of Britain's financial crisis. Business men had cut down on their purchases from Britain.

They also hesitated to settle their British accounts because they anticipated that at some point they could make a better bargain when the dollar became worth more in relation to the pound.

Other devaluing countries were similarly affected. One result of devaluation obviously will be to stimulate renewal of normal trade and financial transactions.

Death Penalty Levied In B.C.

VANCOUVER, Sept. 19.—(CP)—Walter Prestyko, 34, will be hanged Dec. 7 for the June 5 strangulation murder of 66-year-old Michael Geluch in his suburban home.

The cool, wavy-haired killer listened without emotion late Saturday as Mr. Justice James M. Coady sentenced him to the gallows following 2½ hours deliberation by an all-male assize court jury.

SECOND CHARGE

There was no definite indication, following the verdict, when co-accused William John Worobec, 33, would answer to a second charge of murder in Mr. Geluch's death.

A long chain of evidence, including secret testimony by Worobec, led up to the death verdict Saturday.

It included a blood-stained shirt and a beer-bottle bearing Prestyko's fingerprints found in the modest bungalow where the badly-decomposed body of Geluch and his wife were discovered. No charges have yet been laid in Mrs. Geluch's death.

DENIED KNOWLEDGE

During the trial, Prestyko admitted visiting the Geluch home the night of the slaying, but denied any knowledge of the couple's death.

A hint of a romantic triangle came earlier in the trial when Worobec's wife gave evidence on Prestyko's behalf because Prestyko testified later, "She has a deep affection for me."

Hit-Run Driver Being Sought

RCMP today are pressing the hunt for the hit-and-run driver who struck and killed Adam Thomas, Winterburn Reserve, about three miles west of Edmonton city limits early Sunday morning.

Body of Thomas was found on the Stony Plain Road about 12:45 a.m. Sunday.

Details on the accident are not available here as RCMP are still investigating.

U.S. Official Sees U.K. Dollar Boost

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.—(AP)—Treasury Secretary John Snyder said yesterday that British devaluation of the pound should result in "an early rise in their dollar resources."

The text of his statement:

"The British government has taken a constructive economic step in making the adjustment in their foreign exchange rates. The British consulted with the international monetary fund.

The immediate effect should be an early rise in their dollar resources. The long range results should be a healthy impetus to world-wide multilateral trade."

Highest rainfall recorded in the United States was in Louisiana where 15½ inches fell in six hours in 1947.

DOROTHY DIX SAYS

Advisable to Hold Rein Lightly on Young Folks

DEAR MISS DIX: We are organizing a young people's club, the aim of which is character building for good citizenship. What shall we do about the boy and girl who attend the club but refuse to enter into the games and exercises, of the for several minutes?

What of the girl who seems to care nothing for the other girls' company but usually has three or four boys cornered?

What about the girl who insists on holding her boy friend's hand when walking with him? What of the boy who wants to remain on the porch and smoke or have a social chat during club hours?

What of the girls who want to park in a car for a while before going into the house.

ALABAMA LEE.

ANSWER: Well, I should say that all of these are the usual garden variety of youngsters, good material to work on, and your club a fine instrument for training them.

But if you want your club to be a success and do the work for which you are organizing it, don't be too pernickity about what the boys and girls do and don't have too many rules.

Don't make a penal institution instead of a pleasure house, for you will drive the young ones away instead of attracting them to it. And don't think that you can coerce them into doing the way you want them to do. You have to entice them along.

Try to make your sessions so interesting that the young people will not want to miss any of them. That will take care of water-drinkers and smokers.

Then work up a spirit of sportsmanship. Tell the youngsters that the only way you can make the club a success is for everybody to join in and help boost. I was reading the other day what a Rhodes scholar had to say about English games.

He said that nobody seemed to play to win and that nobody seemed to care whether you played a good game or not. The thing was the spirit of sportsmanship, with everybody entering in and doing the best they could.

If you can get that idea across to your club, it will make it a success. Many girls and boys hang back in shyness and vanity. They won't try to play for fear they may not win or that they will be laughed at.

You can stop the girl from holding her sweetie's hand by guying her a bit and letting her know that it is one of the things that simply isn't done among sophisticated people. They do their petting in private.

Here's wishing your club success. But drive with a light rein. Young folks are skittish colts these days.

Redoubled Effort Urged On Britons by Cripps

LONDON, Sept. 19.—(AP)—Sir Stafford Cripps said today Britons must "redouble all our efforts" to export goods now that the pound has been cheapened.

Reviewing the results of the Washington dollar talks, the Chancellor of the Exchequer told a press conference:

"We agred to create appropriate incentive to export to the dollar areas and make a vigorous attack on production. Well, we have created the incentive, all right."

$1.23 DOWN

The pound now is officially worth only $2.80, compared with the previous $4.03. Britons hope this will stimulate exports by lowering the selling price of British goods.

"If we are to succeed in reaching a long term solution of the dollar-sterling problem," Sir Stafford said, "we must regard it as a joint one requiring joint action."

And that, he added, was the object of the Washington conference.

Sir Stafford tossed out what could be interpreted as a hint that the Labor government intends to soften its attitude toward private industry.

CHANGED ATTITUDE?

"We realize that conditions have changed in the matter of capital investment," he said, "and that we must study the problems of incentive and suitable environment to capital investment."

The Labor party already has nationalized such things as the railroads and coal mines. It is in the process of taking over the iron and steel industry.

FIRE OUT, FURNACE TOO, WOMAN FINDS

KANKAKEE, Ill., Sept. 19.—(AP)—Mrs. Hazel Lane built a fire in the furnace to take the chill out of the house and then left for work.

When she returned home, the fire was out. So was the furnace. In fact, the entire heating plant, with its pipes and other connections had disappeared from the basement.

But the mystery was quickly solved. A furnace company said their workmen had been sent to the home of Mrs. Harry Lane, Mrs. Hazel Lane's neighbor, to dismantle the heating plant. They entered the wrong Lane basement.

SETS PRECEDENT

Wife's Allergy Wins Her Annulment

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 19.—(AP)—Pretty Joyce Holdridge says she breaks out in a rash even when her husband's name is mentioned, won an annulment Saturday from a judge who said it may set a legal precedent.

Mrs Holdridge, 27, testified she loved Nolan Holdridge, 26, San Francisco watchmaker, and he loved her, but:

"Whenever I was with him, I would break out in a rash from head to toe. This would clear up 24 hours after I left him . . . but it would recur even at the mention of his name."

Holdridge was not in court.

Judge Ray Brockmann called the Holdridges "guinea pigs" and commented:

"Courts may be forced to recognize what medical science has discovered—that such allergies as Mrs. Holdridge complains of are a fact and not a caprice."

U.S., British Vets Closer

OTTAWA, Sept. 19.—(CP)—Steps toward closer co-operation among veterans' organizations of the Commonwealth and the United States were taken at the 10th biennial conference of the British Empire Service League which concluded here Saturday.

For the first time in the 28-year history of the BESL—central body for some 14,000 member organizations scattered throughout the Commonwealth—representatives of U.S. ex-servicemen were in attendance.

George Craig, commander of the American Legion, extended an invitation to the BESL council to send observers to the American Legion executive committee meeting in Indianapolis in November.

Lt.-Col. Lionel Baxter of Winnipeg, Canadian delegate, was selected to attend the Indianapolis meeting.

Grandfather Stoned

Horoscope

By FRANCES DRAKE

Look in the section in which your birthday comes and find what your outlook is, according to the stars.

FOR TUESDAY, SEPT. 20, 1949.

March 21 to April 20 (Aries)—Splendid outlook for the energetic, consistent, sincere worker. Indifference will get just such returns; anything worth doing is worth doing well. Don't make it hard for yourself.

April 21 to May 20 (Taurus)—You will emerge with gains if you patiently attend to duties, make the best of opportunity. Let your innate gifts dictate your course for new and novel means of progress.

May 21 to June 21 (Gemini)—There is little need for anxiety. The day is stimulating, so go about your work, business or profession with proper confidence and grit and you will achieve. Stars are with you all day.

June 22 to July 23 (Cancer)—Be firm and wide-awake and you should accomplish. A most generous day. P.M. rays indicate help from unusual source; some may be unexpected, so be prepared to take wise advantage.

July 24 to August 22 (Leo)—Planetary vibrations excellent. Benefic returns for the determined, you who have aspiration and get along with associates, friends. Faith is half of your success battle.

August 23 to September 23 (Virgo)—You can make fresh headway in almost any line of endeavor—business, professional or social—today. You will be expected to do your share; use your wits and intellect well.

September 24 to October 23 (Libra)—It is indicated that character will play important part in day's success. Be seriously enthused, using reasonable pressure to advance. Make provisions for mistakes, dull moments.

October 24 to November 22 (Scorpio)—If you properly interpret nature's willingness to help, you can attain fine benefits, gains. Study each move, have sound motive, and work in harmony with helpful influences.

November 23 to December 22 (Sagittarius)—Stars urge your foresighted and ambitious nature be stressed to bring forth the extra gains possible. Watch supplies, deliveries and matters of travel, lest they be wrongly handled.

December 23 to Janutay 21 (Capricorn)—Be cautious; check a tendency to "sky is the limit" attitude. Astrology doesn't change; people continue to be born and manage or mismanage their natures. Know yourself, your failings.

January 22 to February 20 (Aquarius)—Problems related to work, home and social affairs need minute care, deft handling. Do your best to be well-informed, prepared; take that "word to the wise" with good grace.

February 21 to March 20 (Pisces)—Activity concerned with relatives, children, home. Be relaxed; if irritable you cannot find answers or avoid mistakes easily. You should make gains, but don't think only of today.

You born today: Virgo natives usually have high intelligence, seek higher education. Also often are tense, impressive, observing, naturally refined; have stamina, grit and can take emergencies in admirable style—all this, if living on the higher plane. Many doctors, nurses, teachers, writers, landscape artists in Virgo. October and November offer fresh profits, pleasant surprises. Seek promotion in worthy manner, but don't force issues—most must come naturally, through credits. Protect your income.

Birthdate: Mungo Park, Scottish explorer.

Negro Pastor Dies After Long Fast

PORTSMOUTH, N.H., Sept. 19.—(AP)—An elderly Negro minister died yesterday of the effects of 30 days of almost continuous fasting. Rev. Taylor L. Lee, 70, pastor of the God in Christ Church, had abstained from food, his wife said, to emulate Christ's 40 days of fasting in the wilderness.

Cross At Ste. Anne

QUEBEC, Sept. 19.—(CP)—A crowd of pilgrims that grew from 3,000 to 5,000 during the 25-mile journey, yesterday carried the Cross of Jerusalem from Quebec to the Roman Catholic shrine of Ste. Anne D Beaupre. At Ste. Anne the Cross, on a world tour started at Mount Calvary last Good Friday, was the object of day-long ceremonies.

60 YEARS OF ACCOMPLISHMENT
1889 1949
Fifty years ago, fruits and vegetables out of season could only be provided through the skill and industry of the housewife. A goodly store of dried apples and canned fruit was laid away during the summer and fall. Today commercial canneries and quick freezing plants help to make housekeeping easier. In these plants, equipment and utensils which come in contact with food are usually made of pure Nickel or Nickel Alloys. Such metals are rust-proof, sanitary, durable and extremely easy to keep clean. They safeguard the flavor and color of foods, because they resist the corrosive action of food acids.
Nickel Brings Dollars to Canada
Since more than ninety per cent of the Nickel produced in Canada is sold to the United States and other countries, it brings a constant flow of dollars back to Canada. In fact, Canada's Nickel industry is one of our chief sources of U.S. dollars so essential at the present time to maintain our foreign trade and make available products not produced in this country.
These dollars help pay the wages of the 14,000 Nickel employees, and help provide the dollars which make it possible to pay millions in freight to Canadian railways, to buy timber, steel, coal, machinery and supplies amounting to many millions each year.
These millions, flowing into all industries through the length and breadth of Canada, help create jobs for Canadians.

NEW LOCATION for firm of F. J. McIntyre is this South Side block on Whyte Avenue. Dealers in metal mouldings, McIntyre firm has taken over one and one-half stories in new McIntyre block as pressure of business has forced firm to expand. New site guarantees McIntyre customers best in service and materials.

McIntyre Firm In New Location

Moulding Firm Expanding; Official Opening Tomorrow

In order to meet ever-increasing business, F. J. McIntyre and Company have taken the full basement and half the main floor in the McIntyre Block at 10810 82 avenue.

The only company in Western Canada carrying on a wholesale jobbing business in chrome metal mouldings, F. J. McIntyre and Company, will have their opening tomorrow, of their new Edmonton store.

Founded 20 years ago in Calgary, F. J. McIntyre and Company was one of the first to realize the field for metal mouldings here. When the mouldings were added to their lines of paints and hardwood floors, it was not long bfore it became apparent that a full-time department was needed.

FROM CALGARY

Placing of stock into lumber and hardware stores was no small jib, but Mr. McIntyre persisted. Where there was a job to be done in a locality and no trained man available, he either did it himself or sent a man from Calgary.

Today the name "McIntyre" and "metal mouldings" have become synonymous in Western Canada.

Assisting Mr. McIntyre is his wife, Mrs. Vi McIntyre, who spent one year on the road selling mouldings and hardware before taking charge of the office as secretary-treasurer.

In charge of ledgers is Miss Olga Widen, who came to the company from one of the larger lumber companies. Ken Sutherland handles the sales department and purchasing of hardware, while Norm MacPhail is company salesman.

MANY LINES

While metal mouldings are the main part of the company's business, they also carry complete lines of the most popular hardware, well-known and popular Misaplas Tile and Westplak, the plastic finished board for counter and table tops.

The McIntyre Block has a beautifully finished front, with Miraplas Tile, in a green and black effect and trimmed with Mirachrom mouldings. The spacious basement affords ample room for stock storage as well as shipping room.

No trouble or expense has been spared to lay out the stockroom, to facilitate better service for the customer, and living up to the McIntyre slogan, "We fill your orders the day we receive them".

RAF Planning First Flying in Antarctic

LONDON, Sept. 19.—(Reuters)—The RAF will fly in the Antarctic for the first time when two Auster VI aircraft take part in the joint Norwegian-British-Swedish scientific expedition this winter. The scientists of the expedition will spend two years in the region.

The Austers, fitted with skis, will provide air reconnaissance in the search for a passage througn the pack ice for advanced bases on the Antarctic mainland. They will also help to find a landing place on the ice shelf.

No ship built for navigation in ice has yet attempted to penetrate the pack ice off Queen Maud Land, which was the major factor in defeating the first attempt of Sir Ernest Shackleton, British explorer, in 1914.

The expedition will work in Queen Maud Land, an unexplored tract of the Antarctic bounded in the west by the Falkland Islands and in the east by the Australian Antarctic territory.

The whole coast is covered by glacier ice full of dangerous crevasses. It is known that in some places the glacier slopes gently down to sea level and there the ice may be stable enough to set up a base.

Sailing from Norway about the middle of November in a 700-ton Norwegian sealer, the expedition will reach the Antarctic in January after calling at Capetown.

The expedition is sponsored by the Norwegian, British and Swedish governmnets and supported by the Royal Geographical Society, the Scott Polar Reserach Institute, the Norwegian Polar Institute and the Swedish Geographical Institute.

BASERUNNER counting winning run as Esks edged Cubs 4-3 at Renfrew Park yesterday afternoon is outfielder Cliff Johnston. One of Big Four league's top hitters, Johnston came across in eighth inning, scoring from third on Gerry Seaman's loft to centre. Cubs' catcher Doug Stevenson gets relay from Barry Robertshaw too late.

Peterson Puts Esks Back In Fight With 4-3 Victory

M. WILKIE JOINS HOLE-IN-1 CLUB

Max Wilkie, junior member of the Municipal Golf club, scored a hole-in-one Saturday afternoon on the par three, 125-yard 12th hole.

Playing with Roger Wilson in an Abbott Cup match, Wilkie selected a number seven iron for the hole and laid his shot straight down the middle, the ball rolling onto the green and dropping in the cup.

Wilkie went on to win the match and advance to the quarter-finals of the Abbott competition.

By Stan Moher
Bulletin Sports Editor

Times change, they do—and with them the fortunes of an individual.

Midway through the Big Four Baseball league season Eskimo higher-ups were for sending huge Bob Peterson packing. At that stage the 18-year-old righthander from University of Washington was having quite a time getting anyone out. Finally he was served a 'win or else' ultimatum. This, of course, adds up to last resort stuff.

But yesterday, as Esks dumped Cubs 4-3 before just over 5,000 fans that overflowed onto the outfield grass of Renfrew Park, thereby gaining at least a reprieve in their current best-of-seven league final, a fine hurling performance by Peterson turned the trick.

The big fellow, poised for a hasty take-off back to school just as soon as the series concludes, held Cubs to seven hits.

The Motormen counted all their runs in the eighth inning.

A ground-rule double by Bernie Anderson on a drive that rightfielder Cliff Johnston might have gobbled up under ordinary circumstances, as well as 'Slim' Clovinski's two run pop-up that dropped in between Dave Brockie and Bill Price, deprived Peterson of a shutout.

His was a particularly gritty performance, all things considered. From the fourth through the eighth first Cub hitter in each inning got on base.

A Len Karlson to Ted Tappe double play snuffed out Cubs in the sixth and catcher Ed Morris picked Jack Hobson off first base in the next frame to break up a promising looking rally.

CALLIHAN 'BLEW' 3-2 LEAD

Otherwise Peterson didn't ask for any help out of the ordinary. He walked four and turned back seven on strikes. Except for Jim Ryan, Clovinski and Anderson, who shared all the Cub hits between them, the once lightly-regarded University of Washington junior had the answers for the Cub attack.

Vern Callihan, winner of a dozen games during the regular season, duelled along in grand style with Peterson until the eighth. In fact his fold-up followed being presented with a 3-2 lead, result of the aforementioned Cub uprising in the top of the same inning.

To start the Esk eighth Brockie laced a double to the barrier in left-centre. Then Morris and Cliff Johnston (this fellow finally did some hitting) shot up Callihan for singles, Brockie scoring to knot the count at 3-3.

At this point Cubs' manager Les Edwards derricked Callihan, in favor of Morris Hawkey. Latter pitched impressively in relief, getting three hitters in succession.

SEAMAN HAMMERS THREE HITS

However he couldn't prevent Gerry Seaman from lofting to centre, Johnston coming over after the catch with the winning run.

Seaman, with three hits in four trips, including a pair of doubles, shared Esk headlines with Peterson. In what was a tight ball game the pitcher-outfielder scored twice, in addition to chasing home the payoff tally.

Ralph Morgan, Esk top-dog, has nominated Seaman to pitch tonight when the teams go at it in the fifth game. Cubs, keen to rack up a fourth win and close out the series, will get their bowling from manager Les Edwards.

Prior to yesterday's hard-fought struggle a number of presentations were made. Cubs, as first place finishers in the regular season, received the Derry Derrington trophy. At the same time Clarkson (he went '0-for-3' right after), came into possession of a second Derrington trophy as the Big Four's ace hitter (.386).

Sam Irwin, president of the loop, made the presentations.

At the same time Parkdale Tigers, winners of the Mite tournament, sponsored by the Recreation Commission, received the Brooklyn Dodger trophy. Individual members of manager Lou (Woodenface) Savage's team were awarded suitably inscribed medals.

Park lessee John Ducey and Cecil Goldstick, latter representing the Recreation Commission, looked after this end of it.

Outlaws Win Senior 'B' Ball Final

Runte's Outlaws won the Senior B baseball championship at South Side Athletics grounds yesterday, defeating Texaco Oilers 5-1 in the sixth game of the best-of-seven series.

Oilers were down 3-1 in games prior to yesterday's double-header.

Texaco took the first game 8-7, scoring the winning run in the seventh inning. Don Wingfield homered for two runs in the first inning for the winners, but Outlaws came back with three tallies. Texaco's Stan Pruden punched a four-baser in the second frame to tie the score. Runte's grabbed a 7-4 lead in the fourth inning with four hits producing four runs. Oilers once more squared matters with a three-run rally in the fifth, paving the way for the last-ditch stand.

Second game was all Outlaws' with pitcher Mike Mack pacing the attack with a sixth inning homer

Coast's Boxla 'Stars Embark

WINNIPEG, Sept. 19 — (CP)—British Columbia All-Stars, western Canadian junior Lacrosse champions, left here last night for Owen Sound, Ont., to meet the Onatrio All-Stars in a five-game series for the Dominion title and the Minto Cup.

The B.C. aggregation Saturday night swamped Manitoba All-Stars 20-8 ofr a clean sweep of their best-of-three series for the western Canada crown. They won the first game last Thursday, 15-4.

Tigers Claw Bramps

HAMILTON, Sept. 19.—(CP)—Hamilton Tigers Saturday took a one-game lead in their Ontario Lacrosse Association senior finals by defeating Bramptoon Excelsiors 9-5. Second game of the best-of-five series will be played at Brampton tonight. Bill Isaacs and Tommy Love were the top snipers for Hamilton, getting two goals each. Harvey Madgett paced losers with two counters.

Mexico Wins Soccer

MEXICO CITY, Sept. 19—(AP)—Mexico yesterday clinched the North American zone soccer championship, defeating United States 6-2.

Victory gives Mexico six points against one each for Cuba and United States. Two games remain: United States vs Cuba and Mexico vs Cuba.

Pretoria is the seat of the government of the Union of South Africa.

SARNIA BLANKED

Ottawa Stops Wildcats To Keep Unbeaten Pace

TORONTO, Sept. 19.—Ottawa Rough Riders maintained their unbeaten streak with a 19-12 victory Saturday over Hamilton Wildcats of the Eastern Interprovincial Union.

Toronto Argonauts were beaten 24-11 by Montreal Alouettes, who moved into a second-place tie with the Argos.

In the Senior Ontario Union Windsor blanked Sarnia 13-0, moving into a first-place tie with Imperials. Hamilton Tigers smothered Toronto Balmy Beach 45-2.

At Ottawa Saturday a crowd of 13,000 saw Wildcats threatening most of the way. Fumbles or interceptions cost them a chance to tie it up in the last half. Tom Casey, colored Hamilton import, starred as a kicker, passer receiver and broken-field runner. He scored both Hamilton majors, and kicked a single. Murmylyk's convert was the other Hamilton point.

At Toronto a crowd of more than 18,000 saw Alouettes come from behind with a strong ground offensive to crush Argos.

Argo coach Ted Morris, watching his team blow an 11-7 third quarter lead, announced afterwards that two of seven American imports are being released. These are quarterback Russ Reader formerly of Chicago Bears, and halfback Ed Mittelsteadt, formerly University of Buffalo. Two Canadian veterans, Bob Cosgrove and Steve Levantis, will come out of retirement to take their places.

SIGNING 'John Henry' for numerous youthful autograph hunters is Bob Peterson, Seattle righthander whose conquest of Cubs at Renfrew yesterday gave Esks first win of series.

Nolan Fight Geary? Why Not: Farr

"Nolan fight Geary? That's alright by us. Why should we sidestep a chance at Geary? He's never beaten anyone that I've heard of."

This was Ernie Farr speaking from Calgary yesterday . . . Farr, Cowtown fight promoter who manages Jimmy Nolan, western Canada welterweight king.

Farr had been informed of the challenge issued by Geary Friday following his third round knockout scored at the Stock Pavilion over Hal (KO) Kilgore, another Calgary battler.

Further informed that Art Ward, Geary's manager, had qualified the winner-take-all manifesto to Nolan by saying . . . "fight must be held in Edmonton, we can't take a chance on those Calgary referees" . . . Farr said quickly:

"Let 'em bring their own referee. It won't make any difference to the outcome." Nevertheless he suggested that he might even agree to the fight being held in Edmonton.

However it won't come off for at least six weeks, Farr already having lined up a couple of cards. One will feature Nolan against Art Marotti, coast mitt-slinger. The pair fought a draw last Friday in Calgary.

Metcalfe Gets Boston Appointment

BOSTON, Sept. 19 — (AP)—Freddie Metcalfe of Regina, former coach of New York Rovers, Saturday was appointed coach of Boston Olympics in Eastern United States Amateur Hockey league.

Metcalfe's appointment was announced by Walter A. Brown, president of Boston Garden. Metcalfe succeeds Hago Harrington, who has been granted a year's leave of absence because of illness.

New Olympics' coach played amateur and minor league hockey for 12 years before turning to coaching in 1938.

His first team, Lethbridge Maple Leafs, won the Alberta Provincial championship. In 1941, Metcalfe piloted Regina Rangers to amateur hockey's top prize, the Allan Cup. He rejoined Rovers, a New York Ranger farm club, as a coach in 1942.

NEW YORK, Sept. 19—(AP)—Miss Request, flying the silks of Mrs. Ben F. Whitaker of Dallas, Tex., put on a thrilling stretch drive Saturday to win the $72,200 Beldame handicap at Aqueduct.

Esks No Opportunists As 'Riders Roll For 13-1 Win

Locals Lack Payoff Punch in Enemy Territory

By Dick Beddoes
Bulletin Sports Writer

REGINA, Sask., Sept. 19.—Edmonton Eskimos don't score enough points.

That was the story here Saturday as Regina (alias "Saskatchewan") Roughriders trampled Edmonton 13-1 into the mud at Taylor Field.

There were 29 Eskimos in action against the Rugged 'Riders, And when they convened after the game there were 29 different reasons advanced as to why they lost.

But every other shred of evidence pales into insignificance when pitted against the one glaring reason why Esks lost: They didn't score enough points.

And when you don't score, the best you can hope for is a scoreless draw.

As it was Saturday, Del Wardien and Matt Anthony scored touchdowns for Regina, and Pat Santucci, of the educated toe, kicked two converts. The odd Roughrider point was scored on the last play of the first half, Wardien and George McFaul rouging Bill Stukus.

SINGLE ON ROUGE

Eskimos had to settle for a one point, rookie Don Simon tackling Ken Charlton for a rouge in the third quarter.

Pat West kicked off for Edmonton into a misty rain which swept across Taylor Field most of the afternoon.

And throughout the remainder of the first quarter Plungin' Pat and his mates kept Roughriders in the Regina half of the field.

Midway through the period Edmonton advanced the ball to the Regina 10-yard line. They had slashed, crashed, and flashed through the 'Rider front wall after getting possession on the 'Rider 55.

And in those early minutes 4,000 soaked spectators were to see the first—and best—Eskimo scoring chance of the game.

NO GAIN, NO POINTS

On the first down West boomed (?) through the 'Rider defense for a one yard gain. Then quarterback Chuck Fenenboch uncorked a looping pass over the Regina goal line to Frank Hickey which trickled off the latter's fingertips.

With the count third down and nine yards to go 4,000 grandstand quarterbacks figured Fenenboch would settle for a field goal.

But he called a running play with Earl Elsey packing the mail. The Manhattan Beach (California) speedster was piled up, and piled up hard for no gain.

Regina thus recovered the ball and Eskimos lost their best scoring opportunity of the day.

After they changed ends for the second quarter 12 Regina football citizens got untracked. Following Fenenboch's boot to get Edmonton off their own five yard stripe, Charlton grounded the ball on the Eskimo 36.

Doug Belden from Tampa, Florida, heaved a pass to Johnny Bell on the Edmonton 18 which Hickey knocked down. But the play was ruled complete because Hickey interferred with the receiver.

RIDERS ROLL

Then Sammy Pierce rammed through centre for six. In possession on the Eskimo 12, Regina went ahead 5-0 when Wardien galloped off right tackle onmolested.

Santucci came in to convert, shoving the Homesters into a 6-0 lead.

Immediately following the Santucci kick, Rider guard Art McEwan attempted to convert Nick Albert's noggin for an additional point.

McEwan kicked the Eskimo guard broadside on the chin, opening an 8 stitch gash along his cheek. Elsey stepped into McEwan on behalf of Albert and planted the hardest right cross of the day on the Reginan's chops.

Referee Cliff Rosebrough finally broke it up, banishing McEwan and Elsey for rough play. Albert left the game in a battered and dazed condition. He missed the second half and will sit out tonight's game in Winnipeg.

Before the half closed, Charlton hoisted a 40-yard kick to Bill Stukus on the Edmonton goal line. Little Stuke was rouged by Wardien and McFaul as the gun boomed to end the half.

ATTACK BOGS DOWN

Against a 32 mile an hour wind in the third quarter Eskimos scored their only point in two games with Regina. On three successive first downs, sparked by Stukus at quarterback the Edmontons moved from their own 50 to the opposition 28.

The attack bogged at this stage and West attempted a field goal. Charlton received and kicked the ball out to the Regina 10-yard line where Simon stopped it with his nose.

Everybody scrambled for the pighide as it bounced crazily and it was Charlton who finally recovered it back of the line.

Simon had to settle for rouging the veteran Rider halfback, making the score 7-1.

Belden came in to pass a few following the Edmonton drive. He tossed a forward to Wardien, good for 40 yards, from the Regina 25 to the Eskimo 45.

Two plays later Belden faded back to toss one to Matt Anthony. Behind stonewall protection, the Florida Flinger hit Anthony on the Edmonton 20, and Matthew hiked over for a major.

Santucci converted, Regina 13, Edmonton 1.

Fourth quarter was scoreless, with both clubs electing to pile their reserves into the mire. Game closed with Steve Mendryk running the ball 30 yards for Edmonton at midfield.

Royals Near Final With 3rd Victory

MONTREAL, Sept. 19.—(CP)—Montreal Royals Saturday night defeated Rochester Red Wings 9-8 on a double with two men out in the last half of the 10th inning. Victory gave Royals a 3-0 lead over Wings in their best-of-seven International baseball league semi-final playoff.

Jersey City beat Buffalo Bisons 4-3 to keep in the fight, their series standing at 3-1 for Buffalo.

Sunday's game at Montreal was postponed because of rain. The fifth game at Jersey City will be played today.

Royals scored two runs and chased Floyd Boyer, who started for Rochester, from the mound in the opening inning. But the Red Wings hopped on Clary Podbielan, Royals' starter, for three runs in the third. They continued the assault in the fourth when they scored five more tallies.

Tonsi Pulls His Vanishing Trick

By Dick Beddoes

WINNIPEG, Sept. 19.—It took a runaway CNR train to pull Eskimos out of the doldrums after losing in Regina Saturday. To be more specific, the Eskimo special 'ran away' from trainer Bert Tonsi about a mile out of Regina.

Water boy Bob (Jumbo) Neville had been dispatched to pick up a case of soft drinks prior to departing for Winnipeg. Eventually word spread that Bob had been left behind.

Tonsi jumped to his feet.

When he heard the rumor Tonsi pulled the emergency cord to halt the train.

The engineer halted all right—just long enough to let Tonsi out into the dark in search of his young pal.

Minutes later Bob was discovered in one of the cars and the train roared off into the night.

Sometime later Tonsi showed up missing.

This morning Tonsi arrived in Winnipeg cia CPR. He reported a hard night, nevertheless had managed to hoof it back to Regina in time to catch the CPR choo-choo.

Since then manager Al Anderson has assigned a special escort for the tubular trainer.

Bouquets on the Regina game to—Steve Mendryk for some fine runs, John Dlugos, young lineman, from Saskatoon, who spent most of his time in the Regina backfield when he played in the second half, Harry Hobbs, still the most consistent Edmonton backfielder. And to Ken Moore, for recovering his own kick in the third quarter.

★ ★ ★

Chuck Fenenboch finally got his wish to start at quarterback. Coach Stukus is starting brother Bill at quarter tonight.

★ ★ ★

This same Fenenboch was the best booter on the field. Against the wind he was particularly proficient.

★ ★ ★

If you're keen on statistics, Edmonton had the ball 22 times and gained a scant 65 yards rushing. The Reginans made something like 250 yards along the ground.

Feeling in Winnipeg is that Art McEwan should be barred for life from the Western Conference. His deliberate kick administered to Nick Albert's face was the second time this season that he has played it that way. Earlier, against Winnipeg, he was banned for a similar infraction.

★ ★ ★

Edmonton executive members on the trip include Walter Sprague, Bob Bradburn and president Murray Montague. Dr. Cal Fletcher is administering to the Esks' aches and pains, is especially busy today keeping Bill Radovich in bed with a chest cold.

Is There A Paul Rowe On The Loose?

Some purely personal observations brought on by all this talk about the 'T' formation.

It's plain as Durante's nose that Annis Stukus' grid Eskimos are badly in need of what is known in baseball as a clean-up hitter.

In case of Stukus and Co. this amounts to uncovering a gent who doesn't choke up once paydirt is in sight.

In Regina Saturday while getting lumped up 13-1 by the home side, Esks had posession deep in Roughrider territory on several occasions, (they were on the Regina eight-yard line minutes after the kickoff).

But always the attack went ph-t-t-t . . . the sleek, high-powered machine suddenly developing a knock in those last, always hard-to-win few yards.

Off his record one might expect that blond Pat West could crack any line in this Western Conference when so doing meant a major score.

So far, though, this hasn't been the case.

At that, Esks had wretched luck on that Bill Stukus to Hickey forward heave, latter blowing a TD when he allowed the ball to slither out of his eager grabbers.

★ ★ ★ ★

Either through oversight or plain indifference Esks of the Renfrew Park whirl failed to leave their dugout yesterday afternoon as rival Cubs and Parkdale Tigers, Mite league champions, were being presented with various trophies.

This was in very poor taste, considering how easy it would have been for the igloo-dwellers to have taken up positions along the first-base line.

Wha' hoppen, Mr. Ducey?

Local basketball enthusiasts who might have any idea of entering a team in that proposed international circuit, scheduled to play out of Lethbridge, Calgary, Shelby and other casaba centres to the south, would be well advised to go slowly.

The court game hasn't been worth a quarter at the box-office hereabouts since the days of the Commercial Grads, world-renowned ladies' organization for which Percy Page called the shots.

A poor start, in this case, would be worse than none.

Better a thorough job of selling basketball be done in this territory before anyone tries to make a go of it in an 'outside' loop.

Basketball has terrific competition from hockey in northern Alberta, something that is not always the case in the southern part of the province and the northern states.

As they say . . . burned fingers heal slowly.

★ ★ ★ ★

New York Yankees are not going to blow the American league pennant, particularly after their showing of the past few days.

In against Detroit Tigers and Cleveland Indians, a pair of first division clubs, the injury-riddled Bombers won three out of four starts to keep the speeding Boston Red Sox at arm's length.

Red Sox followers are counting heavily on their favorites knocking off the New Yorkers at least four times in the five remaining games between the squads.

This is largely wishful thinking, as Yogi (Frank Buck Brought Me Back Alive) Berra and pals will prove later in the week.

★ ★ ★ ★

Business of trying to keep junior football alive in Edmonton at this time seems ill-advised.. Rather the big effort should be expended on the high school leagues, for a year or two, at least.

For one thing there's a crying shortage of equipment, as demonstrated when the Junior circuit would have been unable to open yesterday had not the high schools lent them the necessary gear.

★ ★ ★ ★

Eskimos will knock off Bob Sandberg and friends by a pair of touchdowns in Osborne Stadium, Winnipeg, tonight. Look for 'Chuck' Fenenboch to break loose in a large way.

Doug McNabb Gives Leafs Grid Victory

Maple Leafs of the Junior Football league today are singing the praises of half-back Doug McNabb.

As the curtain went up at Clarke Stadium yesterday afternoon, with Maple Leafs knocking off EAC 11-7, it was a third-quarter touchdown by opportunist McNabb that tipped the scales in favor of Leafs.

McNabb blocked a kick behind the EAC line, then plopped down on the ball for a Leaf major score. His action capped a heated second-half Leaf drive that saw them overtake EAC's, after the Clubmen had sprinted into a 7-0 edge at the half.

Close to 1,200 fans took in the opener. Game was marked by numerous infractions of the rules, neither club seemingly ever having heard of the rule book.

It's to be hoped this matter will be cleared up before long, particularly if the league is to win its share of patronage.

For a time yesterday it appeared that Bill Zimmerman, EAC back, was going to take care of Leafs almost single-handed.

He booted to the deadline early in the game to provide the Clubmen with an early lead, came right back with a touchdown, which he likewise converted, to run the EAC margin to 7-0 by half-time.

However, Leafs were in command after the rest period and Zimmerman failed to get untracked.

Munro went over the first Maple Leaf TD, just after the third quarter got underway. When Andreschuk kicked the convert EAC's were on top by a bare 7-6. Then came the McNabb heroics as Leafs took the top on his unconverted touchdown, 11-7, and were never headed again.

Fourth quarter was unproductive.

Teams, only ones in the junior field in these parts, meet again next Sunday at Clarke Stadium.

HEAVY CHEST COLD has sidelined Eskimo grid line-coach Bill (Lou Costello) Radovich just hours before Stukus gang takes on Blue Bombers at Winnipeg tonight.

STOP BOMBERS 20-1

Stamps Stay On Victory Trail

WINNIPEG, Sept. 19.—(CP)—Displaying power in every department, Calgary Stampeders overwhelmed Winnipeg Blue Bombers 20-1 in a Western Interprovincial Football Unio ngame here Saturday afternoon before approximately 6,200 fans.

Victory was Calgary's fourth straight, keeping them two points ahead of Saskatchewan Roughriders, who defeated Edmonton Eskimos 13-1 in Regina Saturday.

Behind the strong passing of quarterback Keith Spaith and the brilliant running of halfback Normie Kwong, the dominion champions had little difficulty downing the once-powerful Bombers.

SPAITH FORM GOOD

Spaith, who tossed a 43-yard touchdown pass to Harry Hood, showed little respect for Winnipeg's pass defence as he completed 13 of his 26 forward attempts for 232 yards. Running smartly through Bombers' weak line, Kwong topped off his afternoon's performance with a dazzling 71-yard touchdown dash. Rod Pantages intercepted a Bomber pass and raced 16 yards for a third Calgary major score.

Vern Graham turned in a three-point placement and a convert, while Walt Chahley converted once to round out the scoring parade. Bombers' lone point was a single to the deadline when Walt Edwards' attempted placement went wide.

Calgary did all their scoring in the first and third quarters, holding a 9-1 lead in the first half. At no time did Winnipeg, weakened by injuries to quarterback Johnny Gardner and George Depres and guard Mike Kissell, threaten the powerful Foothills squad. And only in the kicking department did they show an edge, with Bob Sandberg averaging 45-2 yards against Spaith's 44.1.

STAMPS START FAST

Stampeders went right to work from the opening kick-off, with Spaith completing a 39-yard forward to Graham on the first play. Three more completed passes and a couple of line plays put them in position for Graham's field goal from four yards out.

Bombers looked as though they might bake a fight of it, when Don Smith crashed through for four yards from his own 40, and Johnny Carpenter went for a 21-yard gain.

Stopped for six yards by a strong Calgary line led by Riley Matheson, former all-star U.S. professional, Bombers tried a placement from Stamps' 27. Edwards' effort went wide but was good for a single.

Balance of the quarter—and the game—was all Calgary. After Sandberg kicked out of danger from his own one-yard strip to the 43, Spaith heaved a long forward to Hood, who waltzed unmolested across the Bomber goalline. Graham's convert ran the score to 9-1.

Stott, Docherty Keep HBC Trophy

Civil Service tennis club pair of Jahnny Stott, provincial champion, and George Docherty, will take the Hudson's Bay company challenge trophy into winter retirement with them.

At the week-end Stott-Docherty turned back the challenge of Jack Thorburn and Bob Esau, Garneau, winning two of three matches.

In singles play Stott defeated the stubborn Esau, 6-4, 6-3 but Thorburn played splendidly to upset veteran Docherty, 4-6, 6-2, 6-3. Doubles went to Stott-Docherty by a 6-4, 6-4 margin.

This was the last match of the season in this popular competition.

Odds Favor Cards, Yankees Cop Flags

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—(BUP)—The pennant races barreled into the two final weeks of the season today and you had to like St. Louis Cards and New York Yankees—bruised and battered but loaded with pros—to withstand the pressure and wind up in the World Series.

Cards were reported to be losing their punch but you couldn't prove it by the Phillies. The St. Looie swifties beat them yesterday 15 to 3 on 18 hits which included home runs by Stan Musial (number 33), Ron Northey and Enos Slaughter.

BUMS STILL HOPE

The Dodgers kept their hopes alive, but still were 2½ games off the pace, by besting the Cubs—actually no unprecedented feat.

Over in the American League, a recommendation by porky Johnny Mize paid off with another Yankee win, over Cleveland 7-3 and Hugh Casey's first junior circuit triumph. It was Mize who suggested the Yanks sign the footloose Hugh. Fireman Joe Page finished up, but only because Casey, after three scoreless heats, was lifted for a pinch hitter.

The Red Sox maintained their spot, also 2½ games back, through the combined efforts of pitcher Ellis Kinder and Ted Williams. Williams hit homers 39 and 40. That tops his previous high of 38 in 1946. Kinder won his 21st game.

Detroit bested Washington twice, before a rousing capitol turnout of 8,205 fans.

WORSE YET!

Washington boosted its major league leading totals in two departments, games lost, 98, and games away from first place, 46. One Washington player was asked if the team was as bad as it looked. He peered around carefully and whispered:

"Worse!"

Pete Suder, rated by Joe Page as one of baseball's toughest hitters, banged a pair of homers for the A's in winning two from the Browns. The Browns' chances for the future weren't brightened as young "Ribs" Raney, a rookie prospect, gave up four hits and six runs in one-third inning.

Bad luck still plagued the hapless Braves as they lost one and were tied in another by the Reds. Ted Kluzeswki, former Indiana basketball star, had a big day in one game with a four-run homer, two doubles and a single in five trips.

PLAYER WAR?

Hunter Tries To Rustle McCullough

REGINA, Sept. 19.—Bill Hunter is an unpopular guy in these parts today.

For the Saskatoon red-head, who used to manage Western Canada Hockey league affairs here, is raiding the Caps' camp.

Last week Hunter signed Chuck McCullough, ace centre with the 1948 western champions.

But there's a hitch.

McCullough hasn't been released by Cliff Ehrle, popular hotelman who operates the Regina club.

Ehrle is standing pat on the case. Said he Saturday: "Chuck will play here if he plays anywhere this winter."

Ehrle also disclosed that Hunter has been tampering with five or six other Caps.

The Regina chief feels that "if such indiscriminate tactics" are allowed to persist the WCHL might as well fold.

"No club will be able to stand a full-scale player war. We are paying near-prohibitive salaries now. A player war would send most of the teams to the poorhouse."

MARTELLS KEEP EATON TROPHY

RED DEER, Sept. 19 —(CP)—The Martell brothers, Burns and Henry of Edmonton, retained the Eaton trophy yesterday by posting a 4 and 3 victory over Frank Willey and Bill Tait of Calgary in a 36-hole final. It is the third straight year Martell's have won the trophy, in each instance turning back Willey and Tait.

They were three up at the end of the morning 18. Medal scores were Henry Martell, 65-69—134, Burns Martell, 66-70—136, Willey, 67-68—135 and Tait 69-73—142 for the par-70 course.

BIG PAYOFF

Longshots Get Down At Coast Track

VANCOUVER, Sept. 19.—(CP)—Two longshots staged a thrilling stretch run in the eighth race at Exhibition Park here Saturday and combined to pay the largest quinella of the current season.

Toppet, at 16-1, managed to hold on in the stretch to gain a narrow head verdict over Press Boy, a 23-1 shot.

Toppet paid $34.10, $12.75 and $6.15, while Press Boy returned $26.20 and $15.65. Quinella payoff was $309.70.

In the featured $1,500 Nanaimo Handicap, Sir Achtol was always in command to win his third handicap victory this year.

With Jockey Wendell Eads up, Sir Achtol paid $10.10, $6.10 and $3.50.

Spartan's Last battled first with the favored Barnton and then Batchfly before nailing down place money by a head. Barnton stopped in the final eighth, finishing sixth in the seven horse field.

South Side Drops From Ball Picture

DRUMHELLER, Sept. 19.—(CP)—Drumheller Legion Juniors defeated Edmonton South Side Athletics 3-2 yesterday to advance to the Alberta Junior baseball final against Lethbridge.

BEAUTY and the Beast is aptly portrayed by Barbara Ann Deans. It was record catch for dolphins, fish weighing 35½ pounds. Proud owner was Paul Dixon, Greensboro, who hooked his prize at Morehead City, North Carolina.

Saturday Drumheller won the first game of the best-of-three series by the same one-run margin.

Centre-fielder Morley Kolomeyjec came up with a Dick Merriwell catch in the first game which ended in a storybook finish.

With two men—representing the tying and winning runs—on base for Edmonton in the ninth inning and two out, Don Crough poked a long fly that looked like a homer.

But Kolomeyjec made a jumping stab at the ball and held it to end the game.

The Edmonton nine helped Drumheller in both contests by booting the ball around for a total of 12 errors—seven of them in the first game.

Three-Way Tie For Muny Golf Honors

Women' two-ball competition at Municipal Golf club Sunday finished in a three-way tie for first place, three entries posting scores of net 91.

Mrs. L. Prentice and Mrs. R. Slessor, Miss D. Derbyshire and Miss MacMillan and Miss D. Johnson and Mrs. K. Caldwell will play off the tie next Sunday.

NOW MAYBE SHE'LL TURN SERIOUS

ARDMORE, Pa., Sept. 19 (AP)—Mrs. Mark A. Porter, a Philadelphia suburbanite who refuses to take golf too seriously, Saturday won the 49th Women's United States Golf Championship by defeating Dorothy Kielty of Long Beach, Calif., in the 36-hole final, 3 and 2.

The 25-year-old matron won a crown relinquished by Grace Lenczyk, former Canadian champ, in the first round.

Donkey Fastball Finale Tonight

Donkey fastball at Kingsway park will stage a grand finale tonight in their last appearance of the season. Yesterday, before a packed house, the Esks-sponsored Donkey act filled a two-hour show.

A polo (?) game was won by Norwood Foundry as Moose apparently weren't experienced donkey men, dropping a 3-1 decision. Even the gals tried it, Walk-Rites and Mortons battling through two innings. Score of the latter contest has yet to be reported.

Starting time tonight is 7:30.

AIDING DETROIT SURGE into American League first division has been pitching such as Hal Newhouser came up with yesterday, and hitting like Vic Wertz and Pat Mullin consistently supply. Newhouser stopped Washington Senators on eight hits as Tigers won first game of double-header 3-2. Virgil Trucks came back with three-hitter in second contest to put Detroit in tie for third place with Cleveland. Wertz (left) and Mullin (right) contributed to Detroit's heavy attack.

Football Star Dies Following Contest

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., Sept. 19—(AP)—Eddie Hanna, 24, star halfback for Colorado A & M college, died of a heart attack shortly after the close of the Aggies' game with Colorado College here Saturday.

The Negro athlete, a senior, played much of the game in his regular position. He died about a half hour after the final whistle of the contest which his team won 14-7.

British Pros Fade In Ryder Cup Final

GANTON, Yorkshire, England, Sept. 19.—(AP)—United States professional golfers Saturday crushed Britain's best club-swingers in six out of eight singles matches to come from behind to win the treasured Ryder Cup and break the spirits of 12,000 British spectators.

The one-sided troucing of the home stars, who had surprised everyone by winning three of Friday's four Scotch foursomes, made the final score 7 to 5 for the Americans, who held the international trophy since 1935.

Lloyd Mangrum, slim moustached star from Chicago, made their triumph official when, in the final match of the day, he defeated the British match play champion, Fred Daly, 4 and 3.

E. J. (Dutch) Harrison of Little Rock, Ark., Canadian open titlist, buried Max Faulkner, 8 and 7.

Sammy Snead of White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., trounced little Charlie Ward 6 and 5.

Bulky Clayton Haefner of Charlotte, N.C., recovered from a one-down deficit at noon to defeat Dick Burton, former British Open king, 3 and 2.

Chick Harbert of Detroit trimmed Sam King—lone Briton to win a match in the cup series at Portland, Ore., two years ago—4 and 3.

Jimmy Demaret of Ojai, Calif., trounced Art Lees, 7 and 6, after having unloaded a 68 on his morning round to take a five-up lead.

The only Americans to lose were Bob Hamilton, Landover, Md., and Johnny Palmer, Badin, N.C. Hamilton dropped a 6 and 4 decision to Dai Rees, a stubby little Welshman and Palmer was squeezed out, 2 and 1, by Jimmy Adams, a Scotsman.

The weather gave the Americans a big boost. Friday the drought-baked course was soaked by rain. That was what poker-faced Ben Hogan, the Texan who captained the Americans, had hoped for.

The greens were softer and the Americans fired straight for the pin.

So mechanical were the Yanks that Charles Whitcombe, British captain, called them "robots" when the Gold Cup again was presented to the Americans.

Whitcombe said he thought his team did "damned well' against that kind of golf.

Sportsmen Win City Cricket Title

Sportsmen C.C. won the Edmonton Cricket league championship Sunday, overwhelming RCAF 83 for three wickets to 47 for eight at Municipal pitch. Harlequins have one game to play which will have no bearing on the final standings.

Ken Fraser led the Sportsmen batsmen with 55 retired. His score included five sixes. Bill Drever batted well for 23 before playing a ball onto his wicket.

Woolnough and McCann were top batsmen for the Airforce with 12 and 11.

Jack Edwards had the best bowling average, taking three wickets for nine runs.

MORTONS PLAN HOOP CAMPAIGN

Mortons senior ladies basketball squad, provincial champions two years running, will begin their fall workouts tomorrow night at the McDougall school gymnasium.

Coach Johnny Retallack requests any girls interested in making the team to be on hand at 7:30 o'clock.

After winning the provincial crown last year, Mortons went on to take the prairie championship, advancing to the western Canada playoffs before being knocked out.

Metcalfe Gets Boston Appointment

BOSTON, Sept. 19 — (AP) — Freddie Metcalfe of Regina, former coach of New York Rovers, Saturday was appointed coach of Boston Olympics in Eastern United States Amateur Hockey league.

Metcalfe's appointment was announced by Walter A. Brown, president of Boston Garden. Metcalfe succeeds Iago Harrington, who has been granted a year's leave of absence because of illness.

New Olympics' coach played amateur and minor league hockey for 12 years before turning to coaching in 1938.

His first team, Lethbridge Maple Leafs, won the Alberta Provincial championship. In 1941, Metcalfe piloted Regina Rangers to amateur hockey's top prize, the Allan Cup. He rejoined Rovers, a New York Ranger farm club, as a coach in 1942.

Against a 32 mile an hour wind in the third quarter Eskimos scored their only point in two games with Regina. On three successive first downs, sparked by Stukus at quarterback the Edmontons moved from their own 50 to the opposition 28.

The attack bogged at this stage and West attempted a field goal. Charlton received and kicked the ball out to the Regina 10-yard line where Simon stopped it with his nose.

Everybody scrambled for the pighide as it bounced crazily and it was Charlton who finally recovered it back of the line.

Simon had to settle for rouging the veteran Rider halfback, making the score 7-1.

Belden came in to pass a few following the Edmonton drive. He tossed a forward to Wardien, good for 40 yards, from the Regina 25 to the Eskimo 45.

Two plays later Belden faded back to toss one to Matt Anthony. Behind stonewall protection, the Florida Flinger hit Anthony on the Edmonton 20, and Matthew hiked over for a major.

Santucci converted, Regina 13, Edmonton 1.

Fourth quarter was scoreless, with both clubs electing to pile their reserves into the mire. Game closed with Steve Mendryk running the ball 30 yards for Edmonton at midfield.

World-Wide Repercussions Felt as Pound Devalued

By The Canadian Press

Here are some reactions to the London-led decision to devaluate currencies in some countries:

Canada—The Dominion government Sunday night ordered suspension in foreign exchange dealings until Tuesday. The announcement came following a meeting of Finance Minister Abbott with his advisers. There was some speculation in Ottawa that the government might devalue the Canadian dollar which is officially valued at par with the United States dollar but discounted from six to 10 cents in day-to-day trading in New York.

France—The finance ministry ordered the Paris stock market closed and suspended trade on the gold and free currency markets. All these operations will be suspended until further notice. The French franc was revalued drastically last year, with the result that the black market in money has virtually dried up.

India—Today, Tuesday and Wednesday were designated public holidays "to obviate speculation and dislocation of markets." The new rupee rate will be effective before the holiday ends.

Holland—The government withdrew all exchange rates that have been in effect since 1945, and announced that some step similar to Britain's will be taken. Trading in foreign currency was forbidden. Stock exchanges will be closed today and tomorrow.

Switzerland—Swiss currency has been sought after as much as dollars. Financial circles fear a devaluation of the Swiss franc may be necessary to prevent a disastrous blow to the tourist trade.

Sweden—The government will meet today to consider devaluation, Prime Minister Tage Erlanger said. The Bank of Sweden suspended all payments with other countries pending a decision on the new rate.

Poland—Business men expressed belief that increases will be necessary in the prices of eggs and bacon sent to British breakfast tables. A rise in the price of soft wood, another Polish export to Britain, also was considered probable. Offsetting these may be an increased demand in Poland for such sterling area exports as mining machinery and wool.

Egypt—All banks will be closed today. The value of the Egyptian pound is cut from $4.183 to $2.871

Czechoslovakia — Sir Stafford Cripps' announcement was reported without comment by the government-controlled Czech radio.

South Africa—Prime Minister D. F. Malan announced his country's devaluation in a radio broadcast. Today was declared a bank holiday. All stock exchanges also will be closed. Financial circles in Johannesburg look upon devaluation as an economic boon to South Africa, world's biggest gold producer. They estimate it will greatly raise the country's income from gold.

"South Africans bless Cripps tonight," one observer commented.

The Republic of Ireland—The government announced along with devaluation that dealings in foreign currencies will be suspended until tomorrow. Banks will remain open.

Israel—The Israeli government devalued its pound to the same level as the British pound, with which it has been at par.

Greece—Stock exchanges and all banks closed today. Premier Alexander Diomedes said "devaluation is of world-wide significance and the measures which the Greek government must take require attention." He said a further announcement will be made in due course.

Australia—Australia, while cutting the value of her pound 30½ per cent in relation to the dollar, will keep its ratio to the pound sterling at 125 to 100. That is, it takes 125 Australian pounds to equal 100 British pounds.

Argentina—Business circles said they expect the Argentine peso to be devalued soon.

Finland—Bank of Finland will temporarily discontinue all foreign trade transactions, informed source reports.

Singapore—Boosts foreseen in sales of rubber and tin, and a marked increase in trade with dollar areas.

Spain—Exporters gloomy. Importers hopeful they can bring in more British goods at lower prices.

Austria and Western Germany—Government officials considering devaluation possibilities.

Belgium—Officials say no special measures are necessary.

Mexico—Trade with the sterling area expected to jump. Mexico lacks dollars; this shortage forced her to revalue the peso in July, 1948 from the old rate of 4.85 to the dollar. She stabilized it at 8.65 last June. Britain has had a favorable trade balance with Mexico since 1940.

Italy—The cabinet was called into extraordinary session at midnight after Premier Alcide de Gasperi conferred with several ministers.

Two Catholic Priests Become Protestants

PROVIDENCE, R.I., Sept. 19.—(AP)—Two former Roman Catholic priests, Rev. Lionel Beaudet and Rev. Leonard Redlawn, have become ministers in the missionary churches of the Protestant Episcopal Diocese of Rhode Island, it was announced last night.

The announcement was made by Canon Anthony Parshley, archdeacon of the diocese.

Jogendra Nath Mandal, Pakistan's minister for law and labor, is regarded by orthodox Hindu society as an "untouchable."

AWL WITH STOLEN $175

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.—(AP)—"I'll be AWL from now on," said a note found Saturday in the cash register in the Bolling Field officers' billet.

Absent without leeave, with a 19-year-old private, who had clerked there until today, was $175.

Investigating officers said the note was in the clerk's handwriting.

Character Actor Dead

Frank Morgan, 59, well-known screen character actor, was found dead in bed at his home yesterday.

His wife and a housekeeper said they had been in his room earlier but thought the actor was sleeping and did not disturb him.

Later Mrs. Morgan said she went back, found that he was not breathing and called an inhalator squad. However, efforts to revive him were unavailing.

Morgan's latest film appearance was in "The Stratton Story," in the role of a baseball scout. He was one of the veterans of the screen and had appeared in such pictures as "The Great Ziegfeld," "Wizard of Oz," "Tortilla Flat," and "White Cargo."

The actor was an ardent yachtsman. In 1947 he won the California to Honolulu yacht race in his schooner Dolphin II.

Morgan's real name was Frank Wupperman.

Unions Fear U.K. Prices Up

LONDON, Sept. 19.—(Reuters)—Business and financial circles in London generally approved of the government's move last night in devaluing the pound sterling.

But trade Union leaders, already faced with demands for higher wages in many industries, showed some concern. They expected difficulty in explaining to workers any rise in the cost of living brought about by devaluation.

Arthur Deakin, general secretary of the Transport and General Workers' Union, said:

"It comes as a bit of a shock to find that the immediate effect of the decision to devalue the pound is to increase the price of bread. It seems that the British people are again called upon to shoulder another burden.

"But if it is a choice between selling goods in the dollar area or having unemployment, then we must face the facts, however unpleasant they are."

600 Dismissals Seen

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld., Sept. 19—(CP)—United States authorities said today some 600 employes of government military bases in the province will be dismissed within "the next six weeks."

The announcement also said most of them are Newfoundlanders. No reason for the action was given.

Louis Braille, inventor of a reading system for blind persons, was himself blind from the age of three.

East Banker Has Praise For U.K. Move

MONTREAL, Sept. 19.—(CP)—Gordon Ball, manager of the Bank of Montreal, said in a statement last night that the devaluation of the pound is an important step toward the solution of the dollar problem.

"The currency changes announced over the week-end mark a long step forward toward healthy realism," Mr. Ball said.

"They are recognition of the fundamental fact that price does matter in international trade."

GROUNDS FOR HOPE

"With these adjustments now out of the way, we have for the first time in many months good grounds for hope that efforts to bridge the dollar gap may begin to show results.

"Devaluation is by no means the whole answer to the dollar problem. Its gains will be short-lived if it is offset by further inflation or if the response on this side of the water to cheaper goods from overseas takes the form of retaliatory measures.

"But the new value of the pound does provide a background against which an all-out marketing effort on the part of the sterling area has real hope of success."

Devaluaiton Brings Action From Legion

Devaluation of the British pound from a dollar value of $4.03 to $2.80 yesterday brought action from the general meeting of Montgomery Branch Canadian Legion here.

The Legion seeks to have all pensions for Imperial veterans who served with the Canadian forces paid in Canadian funds.

Members feared devaluation would cause a serious loss in income to those members formerly being paid their Canadian pensions in British currency.

Members voted unanimously to register their view in a wire to the minister of veterans' affairs.

Reds Attack Movies

SHANGHAI, Sept. 19.—(AP)—All advertisements for American and British movies have disappeared from the official Communist "Liberation Daily," as the Red campaign for film censorship continues. American pictures have been under press attack for several days on grounds that they were "imperialist" propoganda.

What about Winter Driving with the HILLMAN?

READ WHAT A HAPPY COMMUTER HAS TO SAY ABOUT HIS HILLMAN'S PERFORMANCE

"I live on a farm 30 miles outside Toronto," writes Mr. Hockridge, "and it is essential for me to have completely reliable, year-'round transportation to and from the city. I made the trip in my Hillman almost every day last winter—and didn't miss a single engagement! Half-a-mile of rutted country lane (which drifts at the slightest whisp of wind) separates my farm from the nearest gravelled road. Yet this grand car took everything in its stride—snow, mud and freezing rain! Thanks to its great-hearted engine and extra-low gear, my Hillman carried me in perfect safety and comfort over drifts and ruts that would be a challenge to any car. For many reasons, but especially for its downright dependability—I'm glad I bought a Hillman!"

Edmund Hockridge, well-known CBC artist, whose letter praising the Hillman is one of many received from happy Hillman owners.

WALL STREET OF RURAL ALBERTA

The dusty roads that border prairie elevators are truly the pathways of commerce of the farming country. Loads that trundle over them are worth millions of dollars. They are picturesque and quiet, as this elevator road at Carstairs, but they are important highways in the country's economy. —Photo by Liddell.

Look of a Horse On Facing Death

By Ken Liddell
Provincial News Editor

There was a lot in what Guy Weadick said, but there was much more in what he left unsaid.

The handsomely grizzled rancher of High River, the man who coined the word stampede and made Calgary famous, was talking to Canadian weekly newspaper editors at a barbeque at Jasper Park Lodge.

Ignoring Pleas Boy Saves Chum

Two In Water 45 Minutes As Canoe Upset In Fast Waters

FORT McMURRAY, Sept. 19.—Ignoring his pal's plea that "there is no need of two mothers crying for us tonight. Save yourself and let me go", Jim McGuinness, 18, struggled for 45 minutes to save Louis Waniandy, 21, after their canoe upset.

The two were on their way across the Athabasca river near Boyes brothers camp, 60 miles south, after a bear, when their canoe capsized as it hit Pelican Rapids.

McGuinness, a good swimmer, went to assistance of Waniandy, who could not swim, and after seven attempts managed to get his pal to the capsized canoe.

SYLVAN LAKE, Sept. 19—The chamber of commerce has voted $20 to the funds of the Red Cross to assist in defraying expenses of the swimming lessons during the season just closed.

Edson Is Starting Big Sewer Project

EDSON, Sept. 19—Contractors were to start work this week on Edson's new $175,000 sewer and water extension.

The town now has 440 water installations and this will be brought to 500, while sewers will service 400 homes and the business places.

The project reflects the community spirit in Edson. Although 100 residents, because of their locality, would not receive sewer connections but would pay taxes, anyway, when the money bylaw was voted it carried by over 300 to an opposition of about 17.

Interest High In Yellowhead

JASPER, Sept. 19 — Mrs. Roy Hargreaves, who with her husband operates a dude ranch at Mt. Robson, reported considerable more interest in the Yellowhead route to the coast since passage of the Edmonton-Vancouver caravan.

Mrs. Hargreaves said the tourists were all Vancouver-bound and all were thrilled by the scenery and expressed surprise at how much shorter and scenic the Yellowhead route is compared to others.

LacombeArea Growth Seen

LACOMBE, Sept. 19—Public and high school enrolment — 550 — is largest in history of Lacombe. High school increase is due to the Lacombe district joining the larger division, but growth of public school is due to the town's growth.

Hundreds Worship at Unique Open-Air Church Service

ENTIRE FAMILIES worshipped together in Church of Open Air service at Starlite Theatre yesterday. Among family units enjoying Bulletin-sponsored service was Albert Gaetz family of 12731-125 street. In front seat are Mrs. Gaetz and one-year-old baby Barry. Rear seat holds Bobby, three, Bonnie, 12, and family friend, Lornie Miller, 11. Children enjoyed novel service from auto.

SPIRITUAL way to building better community was pointed out by Rev. J. MacBeath Miller of First Presbyterian Church in Church of Open Air service yesterday

COUNTRY RESIDENTS rolled on wheels to attend Church of Open Air service yesterday. Jacob Bauman of Wainwright highway, 15 miles east of city, brought Mrs. Bauman and four-year-old Carol Betty Bauman to church from country home. Baumans enjoyed service and will likely be on hand for others in the series on Sundays to come.

Over 1,500 Pack Drive-In For Church-of-the-Open-Air

Greatest sermon in history was delivered in the open air on the sloping sides of hallowed Mount of Olives.

There were no automobiles, electronic sound devices or public address systems when Christ delivered that sermon of sermons.

Yesterday afternoon some 1,500 Edmontonians heard again the timeless admonition of Christ to "Seek first the Kingdom of God and His Righteousness," at the first open-air interdenominational church service at Starlite Drive-In Theatre in Edmonton's West End.

Those attending yesterday's service sat in the comfort of the modern automobile and heard the message from the Mount by way of electronic plug-ins from the theatre stage.

FIRST OF THREE

More than 300 vehicles, many of which were from country districts, were parked in the big-out-doors theatre for the first of three such services sponsored by the new Edmonton Bulletin and Starlite Theatre management.

Object of the series is to build a better community by bringing whole families together in worship and provide shut-ins with opportunity to attend divine service which might be denied them at regular church services.

Next Sunday the service will be presented by Edmonton Roman Catholic churches, with the third and final service the following Sunday conducted by the Anglican congregations of Edmonton.

Presbyterians and Baptists co-operated in staging the opening service yesterday.

Rev. E. J. Bailey of First Baptist Church had charge of the opening phases of the service with Rev. J. MacBeth Miller, pastor of First Presbyterian Church taking the concluding period.

TWO CHOIRS

Combined choirs of the two churches under joint leadership of Mrs. F. Barber-Smith and Arthur P. Newcombe sang several anthems and there were solos by Joan Anderson and Mrs. Gordon Sturrock.

A sprinkle of rain fell during the early part of the service but clergy and choir members carried out the program without interruption.

The rain is believed to have induced a slight bum in electrical plug-ins to the cars but the interference was not sufficient to cause undue annoyance.

Following the shower two beautiful rainbows formed in the eastern sky and the sun smiled down on the worshippers.

TALK TO KIDDIES

After opening prayers and hymns, Rev. Bailey gave a short talk to the many children present, telling the story of the Palace of Music. To the adults, Rev. Bailey stressed that only a Christian city is a great city.

He hearkened back to that greatest of all open-air services, when Christ preached to the multitude on the Mount of Olives.

Our Lord had told his audience that good things of the world would be theirs for the asking but first they must seek the Kingdom of God. Then all of the material good things would be added on of a surety.

Moral and spiritual growth was of far greater importance to a city than the mushrooming material growth, he said.

NEW YORKER LOUD IN PRAISE OF ALBERTA

Northern Alberta's lakes and rivers provide "the finest fishing I have ever enjoyed."

This statement was made here at the week-end by Ellsworth Buck, Staten Island, N.Y., chairman of the board of directors of L. A. Dreyfus Manufacturing Co., who returned from two weeks fishing at Summit Lake and other northern waters.

He is one of six American sportsmen who made the trip into the northland under the guidance of Carl Lind, Edmonton guide.

Rainbow trout and grayling are in abundance in these waters, Mr. Buck stated.

Defence Network Plan Gets Major Expansion

The Defence Department in Ottawa today announced a major enlargement of Canada's Defence Communications System, capable of rapid expansion in the event of war.

ELECTED director of Alberta Real Estate Association was Mark Cummings, 11628-87 street, at association's annual convention in Lethbridge Saturday. Also elected director was Norman Winterburn, 10505-134 street.

The system will mold the communications systems of the three services into a single National Defence Communications System from coast to coast and will mean that more service messages can be handled faster. The system is expected to be in operation by the end of the year.

It involves a series of five tri-service communication centres known as "Joint tape relay offices." These will handle all service teletype messages passing through the five points, at Halifax, Ottawa, Winnipeg, Edmonton and Vancouver.

Military officials here said that the new tape relay system should be in operation not later than early spring.

Communications will be taken over entirely by Western Army Command and messages for navy and air force will be done almost exclusively by radio teletype.

Land lines however will be resorted to in an emergency.

By combining existing facilities under one command, it is expected that all communications will be greatly expedited.

The move is expected to effect economies in equipment and a reduction in operating personnel, command spokesmen said.

Each office will be linked directly with the respective area headquarters of the three services, and with all communication facilities of the armed forces. Each service's system will be instantly available to the other two services.

The main system will be linked with service communication systems in the United Kingdom, Australia, New Zealand and the United States, and procedures have been standardized with those of the U.S. to facilitate handling messages between the two countries and eliminate confusion in joint defence operations.

Equipment for the tape relay system now is being installed, and the first two centres are expected to be in operation some time this fall at Halifax and Ottawa, the other three shortly afterwards.

The Navy will operate the Halifax station, the Army the Ottawa and Edmonton stations, and the RCAF those at Winnipeg and Vancouver.

New Speed Record Set By Shotgun

He must have wanted to go hunting in an awful hurry!

And he can, thanks to Bulletin want ads.

An Edmonton woman advertised a new 12-gauge pump gun in Bulletin want ads.

The paper hit the street at 3 p.m., and by 4 o'clock the gun was sold.

She was so pleased at the rapid sale she says she's a confirmed Bulletin want ad user. Buyer of the gun is happy, because shotguns are scarce.

And he's probably even happier that he had a gun for opening of the hunting season today.

So phone 42111 and try Bulletin want ads.

NEWTON, N.C., Sept. 19.—(AP).—Seven coaches of a Southern Railway passenger train left the rails here today and at least 50 persons were injured, some severely. Some of the injured were trapped in the overturned cars.

Stamp Meet Here Tonight

First of this season's meetings of the Edmonton Stamp Club will be held at 7.30, in the Public Library

President C. B. Cox will give a talk on his visit to the convention of the Society of Philatelic Americans in San Francisco.

Approval books from the club and the Canadian Philatelic Society will be on hand.

ROUGHNECK GETS WORKS FROM FRIENDS

A wiser, if sadder, oil worker was on his way back to Redwater today, convinced that all women can't be trusted and all policemen should be obeyed.

Friday night the roughneck was flashing a thick roll of bills around a local hostelry.

Police, in their routine rounds, warned the fellow to put it away. He scoffed at them.

Saturday morning he turned up at the police station to report $228 and a $65 ring stolen.

Sadly he told police the woman of his choice had fled his hotel. He didn't know her name.

Alberta College Student Wins IODE Award

Brilliant high school student of Alberta College has won new laurels.

Betty Ann Lutz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Lutz of Daysland, has won the card of merit and a cash prize from the Fort Edmonton chapter of the IODE, of Edmonton, for obtaining second highest mark among girls in city schools in English three grade 12 final examinations.

Miss Lutz received a mark of 94 per cent.

During the 1948-49 term, her other awards included the W. T. Henry medal, Alberta College's highest award, for outstanding student of the year, and scholarship for highest standing in social studies at the College.

Appointment To Be Discussed By Cabinet

Appointment of D. R. McNaughton, city probation officer and former city policeman, as director of boys' activities for the provincial government, will be considered at this week's cabinet meeting.

Provincial public welfare authorities said today that Mr. McNaughton would start his duties about Oct. 15, if his appointment is approved.

His work would entail rehabilitation of juvenile delinquents in the province.

Clergyman Sees Need For Plans

Nothing must prevent Edmonton becoming the great city destiny decrees it to be. If there are city bylaws standing in the way of Edmonton's growth they must be eliminated

This was the view expressed by Rev. Edgar J. Bailey of First Baptist Church at opening session of "Church of The Open-Air," held at Starlite Drive-In Theatre under the sponsorship of the new Bulletin and Starlite Theatre management yesterday afternoon.

Said Rev. Bailey:

"We have all read with great interest the report of the experts on town planning and it is something that should be given fullest consideration.

"If certain streets should be widened or changed otherwise these changes should be made. Nothing should stand in the way of Edmonton becoming the kind of city it should become."

But while the physical Edmonton must be planned carefully the spiritual growth of this city is of even more importance, the minister said.

Great cities have risen and fallen in the past because spiritual and moral growth were neglected. He cited as examples fates of Jerusalem, Rome, Athens and in modern days, Berlin.

More Oil Right Leases Up For Auction In Oct.

More of Alberta's oil right leases will be disposed of by the provincial government next month, Hon. N. E. Tanner, minister of mines and minerals said Saturday.

Location or extent of leases to be auctioned was not disclosed. Date of the sale will be announced later, said the minister

Mr. Tanner, with deputy minister I. N. McKinnon returned Saturday from a convention of mines ministers and deputies at Fredericton, N.B.

Pioneer Man Much Improved

An 84-year-old pioneer of the West, Charles Mott, 9908 101 street, is in much better condition today.

Royal Alexandra hospital authorities said Mr. Mott, who suffered a serious heart attack four days ago, is up and around a little, and in "fair" condition.

Mr. Mott came to Edmonton in 1883 and was one of the first pioneers of the north country.

He participated in the gold rush of '98, was one of the first men into the country north of Yellowknife, and was associated with Sir Robert Holt in construction of the CPR.

AIR FORCE TRIBUTE

Simple Service Marks Battle Anniversary

Simple services at two city churches and laying of a wreath at the Cenotaph here yesterday marked commemoration by 500 airmen of the Battle of Britain.

Officers, non-commissioned officers and airmen from Edmonton's RCAF station formed ranks on 100 avenue and led by NWAC band marched to All Saints Church.

Roman Catholic personnel attended high mass at St. Joseph's Cathedral where mass was said by Sqdn. Ldr. Rev. A. J. E. Leveque, command chaplain at NWAC.

Protestant service was conducted by Flt. Lt. Rev. L. C. Scott, RCAF station chaplain. Scripture was read by Air Vice Marshal Hugh Campbell, CBE, air officer commanding Northwest Air Command.

After services men marched back to the Cenotaph where a wreath was laid by AVM Campbell.

Overhead six Mitchell Medium bombers roared past and dipped their wings in salute to the gallant men who helped break the back of the Nazi airforce.

Leaving the memorial, parade marched west on 100 avenue to Legislative B[illegible] Group Captain J. [illegible] commanding Northwest Air Command, took the salute from the review stand.

Representing other services on the stand were: Commander I. N. Hoar, from HMCS Nonsuch; Major General Penhale, general officer commanding Western Command and Col. F. Brady, representing the U.S. Airforce.

City Legion Scores Rent Control Move

Fiery Meeting Asks City Housing Authority Here

Crazily spiralling home rentals, [illegible] orders and action-backed protests will result here from removal of federal rent controls next March 31, W. J. Williams, executive secretary of Montgomery Branch Canadian Legion predicted yesterday.

Mr. Williams, just returned from housing conferences at Ottawa in which he represented the provincial command on invitation as well as the veterans, spoke to more than 200 members at a Legion general meeting in the Memorial Hall.

"When rent controls are lifted there is going to be a [illegible] away," said Mr. Williams.

He warned veterans that the federal government definitely in[illegible] controls and that they could expect [illegible] lords.

"Your rentals are going to increase by 50 to 100 per cent," he predicted.

He said he already knew of one example in which the landlord advised a tenant that he intended boosting a $30 rental to $80.

GOV'T TO TAKE OVER

Allan Macdonald, vice-president of the Legion, pointed out that the federal government still had emergency power to continue emergency controls but that housing had eased in other centres and that it was the federal government's desire to turn housing control over to the provinces.

He said he would like to see the Alberta government show "enough guts" to take over the responsibility "without sitting on the sidelines and criticizing."

Ed Poole pointed to unity in the American Legion and said he felt that with a similar unity in Canadian Legion commands "we could force any government to [illegible] thing."

Joe Ferguson, advocated immediate formation of a direct-action committee to be pre[illegible] for eventualities.

BUCK-PASSING

Mr. Williams said it was easy for individuals to make declarations ending rental controls "from the Hotel Frontenac and Chateau Laurier."—the Legion has asked the authorities to extend controls at least until 19[illegible].

At Ottawa a low-cost, low-rental housing project was advocated in a brief which covered all the people of the province and not veterans [illegible]

On this, he charged that federal and provincial governments were "passing the buck."

He said the provincial government claimed credit for the Bonnie [illegible] loaned $1,000,000 [illegible] monton at eight per cent.

"If it had not been for the Central Housing and Mortgage Corporation those houses would not have been built," said Williams.

Farm Flight Due in City

Arrangements are being completed for reception here of about 175 American farmers scheduled to arrive Sunday, Oct. 2, in 100 private planes.

Hosts will be Edmonton Flying Club and Alberta government with banquet facilities provided by North West Air Command.

M. D. A. Fallow, secretary-manager of the Edmonton Flying Club said 115 rooms have been reserved for the visitors.

The Edmonton visit will climax a three-day visit to farming areas around Lethbridge and Calgary.

The mass flight is made up of farmers from Washington, Idaho, Oregon and Montana states, most of whom are taking a "breather" from their agricultural duties to observe methods in Canada.

The tour was arranged by E. R. McFarland, Lethbridge, zone director for the Royal Canadian Flying Clubs Association.

It is understood North West Air Command will provide a Lancaster bomber escort from the U.S. border to guide the huge fleet on their three-day flight throughout Alberta.

Lt.-Gov. Bowen Gets Award In Hospital

Lieutenant Governor J. C. Bowen received one of St. John Ambulance Association's highest awards at his hospital bed in the University hospital Saturday.

His Honor has been in hospital for several days, but until then had carried on his duties at the legislative building daily.

Conferred upon him was rank of Knight of Grace, one of the highest honors ever awarded a commoner by the Order of St. John of Jerusalem.

Sub.-Prior W. B. Gray officiated at the ceremony, and several leading St. John Ambulance Association officers attended.

The investiture was originally scheduled for the legislative chamber, and attending officers planned to wear the traditional St. John Ambulance garb of mantles and swords.

City Teacher Wins Praise

University of Alberta dean of education Dr. M. E. Lazerte was honored at Canadian Education Association convention in Fredericton, N.B. last week.

Dr. Lazerte was commended for the work his committee did in compiling a report on the teaching profession in Canada.

Report was the highlight of the three-day education convention.

City DP Scores In First Concert Here

A very enjoyable concert was sung in the Masonic Temple Saturday evening by Madame Diana Majorowa, mezzo soprano.

Madame Majorowa is a Displaced Person now living in Edmonton. She did considerable concert work in Central Europe before the war. This was her first big recital in Edmonton, apart from her weekly broadcasts over CKUA.

Though her performance [illegible] a little in polish, Madame Majorowa sang with that understanding and feeling in her voice that marks the artist from the spiritless "technique" singer.

Her mezzo soprano voice has great range, and is almost always well controlled, whether used pianissimo or in the full fortissimo which she can bring up so quickly.

Almost always clear and ringing, except for occasional throatiness her voice has very nice tone.

PIANO LACKING

In view of the fast that several Displaced Person concerts in the past year have been disappointing, Madame Majorowa's performance was doubly enjoyable.

However, her piano accompanist, Prof. Leo Turkewich, should have his knuckles rapped for his occasionally sloppy, usually unsympathetic accompaniment. Her singing was worth more than that "I've done it a hundred times" attitude he had Saturday night.

Included on the program were: [illegible] of Love" [illegible] ters," Tschaikowsky's aria of Polina from the opera "Queen of Spades" Saint-Saens' aria of Delila from the opera "Samson and Delila" Rubinstein's "Night," Bizet's Habanera from "Carmen," and several Ukrainian and Gypsy songs.

English Imports Affected in Change

By Bea Thrifty

Lazy Sunday afternoon living was broken by a British jar yesterday when Sir Stafford Cripps announced the devaluation of pound sterling

This desperate fling for English economic safety will affect every last one of us on this continent is some fashion.

* * *

It will make a vast change in the price of English imports when they're able to undersell the Canadian manufacturer.

Think of the now high-priced woolens selling at reductions totalling in some cases to one third. We may think it pleasant to be able to purchase British imported goods at a lower cost. . . . but the inevitable influence of this pound devaluation may have less sunshiny aspects.

But that sort of discussion is a job for economic experts on a higher plane than we homemakers . . . or is it?

* * *

We'll keep our eyes and ears tuned to developments. It's a good idea for we women to follow this matter from the very beginning. When the home budget battle is our field we should have the all-over picture at our command shouldn't we?

* * *

But for the nonce, let's content ourselves with news of Toby jugs. It's the old, dearly beloved Beswick ware entering the field which prompts our interest.

Not as finely detailed as Royal Doulton's stalwart efforts, they are nonetheless charming particularly when prices are compared. The Beswicks go at prices ranging from 86c to $12.98 and I'm kinda partial to a fine selection of them.

* * *

[illegible]

* * *

Word has it that half-slips have seen their hey-day. (Whoops . . . doesn't that sound racey!) But it seems to be true, true, true. Local shop buyers won't touch them with the proverbial ten-foot pole.

This all adds up to the song and dance [illegible] lovely lacey, be-ribboned [illegible] for a pittance. I saw a [illegible] pale, creamy yellow with [illegible] lace swishing [illegible] goes to the shopper for $2.95.

Other editions in less pretentious style, go for as little as $1.59.

I'm partial to half-slips for summer wear . . . but winter seems to be poking his ugly old nose into our lives.

* * *

Last call for the peach preservers!

Little men in the know about fruit 'n vegetable huckstering are waving the finger of warning. Peaches have past their peak and are petering out.

They're still selling [illegible] big Hales, at prices eddying around $1.85 to $2.25. But this won't last beyond a ten-day period, with quality decreasing daily.

* * *

[illegible] spot in quality and quantity. This [illegible] can quarts and quarts of them [illegible]

YOUR BABY AND MINE

Modern Methods Stop Over or Under Feeding

By Myrtle Meyer Eldred

There is a nice middle-ground between under and over-feeding. The baby's contentment with his rations should make it plain when that place has been reached.

The baby of yesteryear, who was fed a measured portion of food geared to his height and weight and age, had more opportunity to be under-fed. The present-day baby who can eat as much as he wants, when he wants it, may overeat unless his mother is alert to interpret his behavior rightly.

Mrs. D.T. writes: "When I had my first child seven yeears ago, things were so different from what they are today. Today, the general plan seems to be to feed the baby when it is hungry. But, I try to keep my baby on a schedule so that I know what he is getting to eat. He is now 3½ months old.

"Today's babies get solid food earlier than mine did, but I still can't say that this boy is any fatter or better contented than my girl was. In fact he seems to cry quite a bit, which is why I am writing to you.

"He is already on whole milk with two tablespoons of malt sugar added. He gets only five feedings and never seems to finish any of them.

"At ten o'clock he has two tablespoons of cereal and his bottle. At 2 p.m. he gets a whole egg yolk, mashed, and half a jar of strained vegetables. This is the bottle he never wants to take.

"At six o'clock he gets cereal, some fruit and another bottle. He sleeps until ten o'clock, is fed and then wakens again in the night. He has four ounces of orange juice, two in the morning and two in the late afternoon. Also, his [illegible] What is wrong with [illegible]

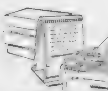
More schooling today means more success TOMORROW!

An Urgent Message...



IT IS OUR BELIEF that a serious problem is gravely affecting the efficiency of many Canadian businesses, and the prosperity and happiness of the men and women who staff them.

THE PROBLEM?

A perilous shortage of adequately trained office help—[illegible] typists and stenographers!

It's a fact that many thousands of teen-agers are annually finding employment in offices. But . . . it's also a fact that only a very small minority possesses even the basic training in typing, stenography and general office routine essential for a proper start.

THE REASON?

Far too many boys and girls—the overwhelming majority, in fact—are leaving Business Schools too early. Lured by the thoughts of "easy money", they are embarking on their careers deprived of the proficiency and confidence gained only by staying at school long enough to graduate with recognized standards. Too early departure from school cheats them of normal advancement and the greater earning power that goes with it.

Each precious month of Business schooling curtailed can and does have gravely far-reaching consequences. Under the test of actual work at an office desk, a skimped, "unfinished" training in typing or stenography soon reveals itself. While the half-trained typist gropes to attain accuracy and confidence, his or her adequately trained colleague does more work and better work—thus is automatically marked for promotion!

For these reasons parents are urged to remind their sons and daughters that only by staying at school until they have obtained the complete and adequate training prescribed, can they get ahead as they hope—today or in the future. That last month or two of schooling purposely designed to eliminate "rough spots" . . . guarantee proficiency . . . build self-confidence . . . will save years of disappointment and frustration later!

SOCIAL and PERSONAL

NORWOOD UNITED CHURCH was setting for recent wedding of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Losie. Bride is former Doreen Elinor Upright, daughter of Mr. and Mrs Cecil Upright. Bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Claude H. Losie.

Elaine Wagner Bride In Evening Ceremony

In a double-ring ceremony which took place early Saturday evening in Robertson United Church vestry, Margaret Elaine Wagner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs W. P. Wagner of Edmonton, became the bride of George Martin Kernahan, son of Mr. and Mrs J. E. Kernahan of Winnipeg.

Rev. Angus MacQueen performed the ceremony, in which the bride was given in marriage by her father.

Lustrous grey satin fashioned in ballerina length was chosen by the bride. Her gown was styled with fitted bodice, rolled collar, three-quarter-length sleeves and was buttoned down the front to the waist.

LACE HEADDRESS

Her tiara of French lace was in grey and featured pink ostrich tips. She wore matching lace mittens and carried a colonial bouquet of pink roses and white baby chrysanthemums with gardenia centre.

Mrs. Robert Van Alstine was matron of honor. Her bronze-shaded shot silk gown was complemented by light brown accessories. Copper ostrich tip adorned her gold hat. Her flowers were cream roses and bronze chrysanthemums.

Peter Crawford of Winnipeg was best man.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Wagner chose a two-piece ensemble of grape wine with which she wore a matching model hat and corsage of cream roses.

MOTHER IN BLUE

Mrs. Kernahan was in an afternoon model of blue with which she wore grey accessories and corsage of deep pink roses.

Following the ceremony, a small family reception was held at the Macdonald hotel where a two-tier wedding cake centred the bride's table.

The couple left later for Jasper, the bride travelling in a coffee rust gabardine suit topped by a grey-green gabardine coat with which she wore black accessories and a gardenia corsage.

The bride is a graduate in public health nursing from the University of Alberta and is a member of Delta Gamma fraternity. Her husband has his degree in mechanical engineering from the University of Manitoba and is affiliated with Phi Kappa Pi fraternity.

Joan Frances Smith Weds Bud Anderson Recently

Gown of heavy white satin was chosen by Joan Frances Smith recently when she became the bride of Eugene Francis (Bud) Anderson.

The ceremony was held at Holy Trinity Anglican Church in late afternoon. Baskets of gladioli banked the altar when Rev. A. Ross Sage read the vows.

Bride is daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Smith. Her husband is nephew of Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Munshaw of Edmonton.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in her traditional satin gown. Fashioned with fitted bodice, lily point sleeves, the white wedding gown was a picture of grace. Lace-edged train fell softly in folds from a beaded coronet. She carried a sheaf of American Beauty roses.

TWO ATTENDANTS

Miss Pat Smith, Miss Evelyn Inkpen attended the bride, wearing matching gowns of pale blue and pale pink sheer. They carried colonial nosegays of mixed summer flowers.

Daryl Anderson was best man. Guests were ushered to pews by Warren Smith and Robert Leek.

Herbert Wilde played the wedding music.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Corona hotel for 22 guests. The bride's mother received wearing a grey crepe dress with wine accents. Her corsage was of Talisman roses.

AUNT RECEIVES

Mrs. Munshaw, bridegroom's aunt, received wearing a frock of dove grey crepe with floral design and black accessories. She wore a corsage of Talisman roses.

Three-tiered wedding cake was set in a nest of white tulle and centred the bride's table. Tall pink tapers flanked the cake. Snapdragons, gladioli, and ferns filled the reception room.

Later friends of the newlyweds called at the home of bride's parents to offer their congratulations.

Daryl Anderson proposed the toast to the bride.

The couple will make their home in Edmonton.

Committee chairmen were appointed at the first fall meeting of the Ladies' Junior Chamber of Commerce, held recently at the Seven Seas.

They were Mrs. J. W. W[illegible]son, social; Mrs. A. L. Pesto, publicity; Miss Helen Clipper, [illegible]; Mrs. J. C. Rendall, films; Mrs. R. W. McMullin, personal; Mrs. H. N. Mills, Col. Mewburn Pavilion; Mrs. M. Shopland, Tb section, General Hospital.

Mrs. H. N. Mills and Mrs. I. C. Lund reported that the day room at the Col. Mewburn Pavilion had been refurnished during the summer months with proceeds from the ECD booth at the exhibition.

Volunteers, headed by Mrs. T. Arlidge, will aid the Red Cross blood donor drive, it was announced.

Speaker's group was formed with Mrs. L. Johnson as chairman.

Miss Maud Brettingen reported that there will be three bowling teams this year.

Future plans were discussed for a rummage sale, and the Sixth annual Quadrille Ball at the MacDonald on Oct. 7.

Liberal Women Plan Meeting

Annual meeting of Edmonton Women's Liberal Club will be held at the home of Mrs. A. B. Allen, 9935-86 avenue Oct. 1.

This was decided at a recent meeting when Mrs. Cora Casselman entertained the group.

Buffet supper will be served at 7 p.m. before the meeting. Assisting the hostess will be Mrs. J. Holychuk, Mrs. P. Rasmussen, Mrs. Percy Mellors, Mrs. J. [illegible], Mrs. E. Engstrom and Mrs. F. J. Conroy.

Mrs. W. Phillon was named head of [illegible] committee, assisted by Mrs. Engstrom, Mrs. Surry and Mrs. J. Gawdun.

Mrs. Conroy presided at the meeting.

Royal Purple Women Hear Meet Report

Convention report was given at a recent meeting of Ladies of the Order of the Royal Purple. Mrs. M. Decker presented the report.

Plans were made to hold a bingo party at the club house Sept. [illegible].

Lunch was served.

Mrs. M. Lohouse presided.

Martha Logan's Swift'ning COLUMN

WANT something different for tea? Then try these delicious raisin tea cakes! Not only are they good, but they're easy to make with quick mixing Swift'ning—the new kind of shortening.

RAISIN TEA CAKE

[illegible] cups sifted pastry flour or [illegible] cups and [illegible] tbsps. sifted all purpose flour
3 tsps. single-acting baking powder
½ tsp. salt
8 tbsps. Swift'ning
6 tbsps. granulated sugar
2 eggs
½ tsp. almond extract
2 tbsps. grated orange rind
½ cup (about) milk
½ cup seedless raisins

Measure flour and add baking powder and salt. Cream digestible and nutritious Swift'ning slightly and gradually blend in sugar. Beat and add eggs, then flavourings. Sift in dry ingredients alternately with sufficient milk to make a dough of "drop" consistency; include raisins with last of dry mixture. Drop dough by spoonfuls about 1 inch apart on greased pan. Bake in hot oven 400°F. about 25 minutes. Serve hot, with butter.

FREE!—For your free copy of my new Swift'ning Recipe Book, "Queens of Cuisine," send name and adress, one Swift'ning box top to: Martha Logan, Dept. 126 Swift Canadian Co Limited, Toronto [illegible], Ontario.

FRIEND AND HELPER

A Writing Board Is A Useful Thing To Make

Dear Tawasis:

If you have ever had a writing board you know what a handy thing it is to have. You can hold it [illegible] when writing to your friends or take it outdoors if you want to sketch.

And best of all you can easily make a writing board. If you don't want to use it yourself you could have the fun of making it and the pleasure of giving it to your mother or dad or some special friend.

To begin you need a piece of board about fourteen inches long and twelve inches wide which must not be too heavy or too thick. Three-eighths of an inch would be about the right thickness.

You will require some waterproof cloth, some small brass-headed nails and about a yard of broad black elastic. Half a yard of the waterproof cloth would be ample. Now you will be all ready to begin.

The first thing that must be done is to cut the waterproof cloth to fit the board. It should cover the board both front and back and should be tacked neatly around the edges of the board or onto the back of the board.

THREE POCKETS

Now you will be ready to make three pockets, one for notepaper, one for postcards and the third for envelopes. You can make the pockets a little wider than the notepaper, postcards and envelopes but you will not want them as deep as the materials they are going to hold.

These pockets can be fastened onto the board with the small brass nails. You may find that they bulge a little but that does not matter. Pockets for postcards and envelopes can be placed on the upper part of the board.

You can place the notepaper in the lower left hand corner which would leave the lower right hand corner for blotting paper. With some of the waterproof cloth you can make four small triangular pieces into which you can insert the corners of the blotting paper.

You will want a place for pencil and pen holders. To the right of the blotting paper tack two pieces of elastic to hold these articles. In the space between the notepaper and envelopes you can tack another piece of elastic to hold erasers and stamps.

It would be very easy to make a writing board without any pockets since you could make holders for the postcards, envelopes and notepaper from elastic. But the pockets keep the writing material clean until it is to be used.

PEN WIPERS

All boys and girls know how to make pen wipers and this makes a nice addition to the writing board. You can fasten two or three rounds of cloth with a tack to the board above the blotting paper.

If you wanted to include an ink bottle on the board it would be necessary to make a hollow in the board before the cover was put on and to cut a hole in the cloth for the insertion of the bottle. You would also need to strap the bottle on with elastic and place it above the holder for pens and pencils.

Some day when you are wondering what to do next, try making a writing board.

Sincerely,

Joan Walker

Birthday Greetings

Birthday greetings go today to Loretta Haley, 10777 96 street, who celebrated her twelfth birthday Sept. 16. Loretta, who attends grade five classes at Sacred Heart school, finds that reading is her favorite subject. She likes to draw pretty pictures and knit different things, but she doesn't like to wash or dry dishes at all.

WHY MOTHERS GET GRAY

UNCLE WIGGILY'S BEDTIME STORY

By HOWARD R. GARIS

Buster, the rabbit scout who was looking for his daddy, tilted both his long ears up toward the robin in the tree who was saying:

"Poor Uncle Wiggily! Poor Uncle Wiggily!"

"Hello, Mr. Robin!" called Buster. "Why are you saying that my daddy is poor? Why?"

"Who is your daddy?" chirped the bird with the red breast.

"The same rabbit about whom you just now spoke," answered the rabbit scout. "Uncle Wiggily is my daddy. I thought you knew that." "But I wish you wouldn't call my daddy poor. He's quite a rich rabbit. He owns bushels and bushels of carrots."

"Oh, I didn't mean that he was poor that way," sang Mr. Robbin. "I just feel sorry for him.

"I intend no harm."

"I'm sure you didn't," answered Buster. "But can you tell me where I can find my father?"

"Why do you want to find him?" asked the robin bird

"So I can tell him the good news."

"Well, poor Uncle Wiggily certainly needs good news, Buster. But what sort of good news is it, and why will it make your daddy happier? What's it all about?"

"Uncle Wiggily—he's my daddy—has an amusement raft in Frog Pond," Buster explained. "On it is a merry-go-round, a shooting gallery, a roller coaster, a candy kitchen and lots of other things for fun. Also, on the raft, daddy gives shows and amusements.

"Now he wants a good, sensational act to close the Summer season before he makes his raft into a skating pavilion. Bunty, the orphan rabbit, and I have the very act daddy needs, with a blue elephant, a monkey and Chow Chow, a fiddling dog."

"It sounds very interesting," chirped Mr. Robin.

"It is a wonderful act. I went to the raft to see what would be the best time for Bunty and all the others and me to ride aboard on the elephant's back. But when I got to the raft my daddy was gone. Neither Bosun, Mr. Bow Wow nor Uncle Butter knew where daddy was. So I started out to find him to tell him the good news. Then I heard you singing about 'Poor Uncle Wiggily.' Please tell me where he is?"

"The last I saw of him he was sitting on a stump beneath a sassafras bush. I came away, leaving him sitting there. If you like, I can fly back and guide you to the place."

"Please do," said Buster. So the robin started to fly through the woods and Buster hopped amid the trees. At last they reached the flat stump beneath the sassafras bush, but Uncle Wiggily wasn't there.

"He's gone!" said Buster.

"We must go farther and farther," said the robin bird.

"I will go to the end of the woods to find my daddy and tell him the good news," said Buster.

"That's a long hop, but let's go!" sang the robin. So they started off through the woods and then suddenly they heard a voice.

Non-Stop Flight Made

OSLO, Sept. 19.—(CP)—A United States C-54 four-engined transport plane landed yesterday after the first non-stop flight across the Arctic from Alaska to Norway, nearly 4,000 miles. Col. Bernt Balchen, Norwegian-born chief of the U.S. Air Rescue Squadron in Alaska, was pilot on the 22- hour 30-minute flight.

TLC Stalemated On AFL Issue

International Unionists Seek More Vote Power

CALGARY, Sept. 19.—(CP)—A week-end of manoeuvring in a struggle for power between rival factions of the 450,000-member Trades and Labor Congress of Canada appeared to have left issues stalemated today as the Congress entered the third sitting day of its annual convention here.

While an anti-Red faction of international union officers had swung the Congress executive to backing its play for eviction of the Red-influenced Canadian Seamen's Union, the executive was balking at another move that would place greater power in the hands of the international unionists.

VOTE BY BLOC

This move was a change in convention voting rules that would give greater balloting strength to the international unions. It would follow the system of "bloc" voting used by the American Federation of Labor, whereby attending delegates could vote the whole strength of their unions.

The AFL itself—parent organization of the TLC's international groups—has been putting pressure on the Congress executive to adopt its system. The executive has been holding off on the contention that it would throw the TLC completely into the hands of unions led from another country.

Leaders of both groups held a series of meetings over the week-end. While there were no official statements from either side, there were no indications up to late last night that any solution had been reached.

COMPROMISE SOUGHT

Attempts were being made to work out a compromise of some kind before controversy came to the floor of the convention sometime later this week—possibly tomorrow.

If the international group under Frank H. Hall of Montreal failed to make yardage with the executive in the behind-the-scenes talks, it was expected to carry its fight to the convention floor, though perhaps not making a direct battle over the bloc voting issue at this time.

Informants said the strategy would be to put candidates into the field for office on the TLC executive which—if successful—would give the international bodies a grip on the TLC leadership.

THREE CANDIDATES

Unless a compromise is worked out, present plans of Hall group are to run candidates for three of six executive offices.

For the key job of secretary-treasurer the candidate would be A. R. Johnston of Toronto, Canadian head of the hotel and restaurant employes' union (AFL-TLC). It was expected he would be opposed by Gordon Cushing of Calgary, backed by the executive. The present secretary-treasurer, John W. Buckley of Toronto, is retiring.

Meanwhile, it was expected the Canadian Seamen's Union issue—which split the convention wide open last year—would hit the floor this afternoon.

A warm debate over the question was looked for, though all indications pointed to the convention supporting an executive-ordered suspension of the CSU delivered last June.

Depression Is Feared As Result of U.K. Move

The ugly threat of depression reared its terrorizing head over the world today with the announcement that Britain has devalued her pound.

Depression in the dollar countries, and near-chaos in sterling Britain, were just two of the possibilities which may be forecast by devaluation of the pound.

This was the analysis by Professor Albert Mayo, economics expert at the University of Alberta, who is doubly familiar with British economics because he left the United Kingdom just two years ago to come to Canada.

ANALYSIS DIFFICULT

Though stressing that it is extremely difficult to know just yet what the far-reaching effects of sterling devaluation will be, Prof. Mayo said that "it might induce depression" in the dollar countries (including Canada and the U.S.) and will make things more difficult than ever for the austerity-ridden people of Britain.

Prof. Mayo was in Britain last summer, teaching at Oxford and obtaining his Ph.D. degree.

The theory behind the pound devaluation is that Britain can sell more goods in North America, because British products will be cheaper in dollar areas.

MORE U.K. GOODS

"We'll see a lot more British goods in Canada now," said professor Mayo.

Automobiles, textiles, china, steelwares, and a long list of other British goods will be imported in greater quantity onto this continent.

That is the purpose of pound devaluation, reached after discussion between British, U.S., and Canadian finance experts.

But what will be the ultimate effects of this?

To a certain extent, Marshall Plan dollars will offset results which might be more serious than they probably will be.

PROFESSOR'S RESUME

According to Prof. Mayo, here is probably what will happen:

(1) More British goods will appear on North American markets.

(2) Canadian manufacturers, in Ontario and Quebec particularly, will probably protest to the Canadian government about cheaper British goods which will affect sale of Canadian-made goods.

(This happened about a year ago when the British came out with a cheap lawn mower, selling in Canada for about $10).

(3) Canadian and U.S. sales to Britain will be cut down, because North American-made goods will be more expensive in British money.

(4) Britain will import essentials only.

(5) Not just Britain, but the whole sterling area — including Australia, New Zealand, South Africa and British West Indies, will be affected.

Same thing happened in 1931 when Britain went off the gold standard and the pound dropped from $4.86 to $3.80. Effect was same as devaluation.

(6) A depression in the dollar area may be induced, through it should be partially offset by Marshall Plan dollars.

(7) Cost of living in Britain "will show a very great rist," Sir Stafford Cripps, chancellor of the exchequer, "played this down," said Prof. Mayo. British bread will rise almost immediately from eight to 10 cents a loaf. Tobacco, textiles (because Britain buys much cotton from the U.S.) meat, and other products will go up in price.

(8) British trade unions will not rest content with present wage levels. There will be a "serious internal problem" in Britain. Railwaymen who have been demanding higher wages will surely get them now, and other unions will follow suit.

(9) British production costs will undoubtedly rise.

(10) Tourist trade to Britain will probably increase.

Concluded Prof. Mayo, "I can only assume that when British and U.S. government officials weighed the effects of pound devaluation, they felt that the advantages would ultimately outweigh the disadvantages."

Rise in British production costs would not be great enough to overbalance increased production and markets.

But it seems definite that for a short time at least, there will be a decline in sales of Canadian and U.S. goods in Britain.

TENDER MOMENT from M-G-M's drama "Edward My Son" which opened at the Empress theatre today, starring Spencer Tracy and Deborrah Kerr. Film has been acclaimed one of Tracy's best.

Spencer Tracy Stars In Empress Feature

Spencer Tracy, who has come to be regarded as one of the finest actors the stage or screen has produced, gives an electrifying portrayal in "Edward, My Son," M-G-M's superb film version of the London and New York stage success, now on view at the Empress theatre.

Tracy, in the role created in the stage play by Robert Morley, plays Arnold Boult, a man whose frantic obsession to provide the best for his only child brings ruin to everyone with whom his life is bound.

In a sequence of events covering a period of thirty years, Arnold Boult rises from an obscure, middle-class London businessman to become a peer and one of the richest financiers in the land.

But at what a cost! He drives his business partner to suicide, he changes his wife from a happy, devoted woman to a bitter and disillusioned alcoholic, he almost succeeds in disbarring his best friend from the medical profession, he tries to wrest his son's illegitimate child from its mother.

HIS WORLD CRUMBLES

In the end, his world crumbles about him and he emerges from prison the obscure man he started out.

Tracy combines a burning intensity with cold ruthlessness in his portairt of Arnold Boult, making it stand out as one of the most memorable acting achievements in his brilliant career.

He is ably seconded in the work of Deborah Kerr in the role of the wife whose character and integrity he destroys.

It is advisable to see this picture from the beginning to get the most out of it.

Double Feature On Rialto Screen

Cornel Wilde, Patricia Knight Are Starred In 'Shockproof'

"Shockproof," new Columbia drama starting at the Rialto Theatre, stars Cornel Wilde and Patricia Knight in the story of a man who thought he knew everything about the woman he married.

Wilde plays the role of an understanding parole officer, while Miss Knight is a bitter, beautiful murderess, placed in his custody.

In trying to do his best for those parolees placed in his custody, Wilde appears to singular advantage in a role calling for good humor and understanding.

BECOMES ACCESSORY

But he becomes more and more involved in the affairs of the blonde murderess, who refuses to abide by the rules of her parole, until he too becomes a grimly determined accessory.

The "other man" in the romantic triangle is John Baragrey, who takes the part of a suave gambler. Others in the supporting cast include Esther Minciotti, Howard St. John and Russell Collins.

"Shockproof" is obviously the kind of picture both stars wanted to make together. It is an actor's picture and an audience picture.

SECOND FEATURE

Also appearing in the double feature billing at the Rialto Theatre is the adventure drama "Tuna Clipper."

Leading star is Roddy McDowell, who is ideally cast as a bewildered youth whose entire mode of life is changed when he attempts to cover up a theft committed by a wayward friend.

Roddy, who hates the sea, is forced to leave home and secretly secures a job on a tuna boat. Eventually the reason for his actions are brought to light in a thrilling climax, which qualifies "Tuna Clipper" solidly in movie entertainment.

Inside Hollywood

By Howard C. Heyn

HOLLYWOOD.—(AP)—Maybe you like those billboard posters, plugging "the great Gatsby," which show a bare-chested Alan Ladd flexing his muscles. Ladd doesn't. He says he shudders at the sight of 'em.

Billboard art is a touchy subject with Ladd. Again and again he's splashed in semi-nude poses on signboards and drama pages to advertise his recent pictures.

"I have nothing to say about these layouts," he complained. "I never see them until they're used."

Alan thinks many of these ads misrepresent his films. In "Gatsby" he wore a bathing suit in one brief scene.

REMEMBER ALICE

"Memories?" snapped Alice White on "The Cage" set. "Who wants memories? All I want is a crystal ball. It's the future for me."

The one-time star revived her career last year with "Flaming Road." She has no patience with patters-on-the-back who seek to console her with references to the wonderful recollections she must have of palmier days.

"Maybe I'm not the star I once was, but brother, I'm not through," she declared. "What do they think I am, a has-been? I was never in a silent film in my life. I started in 1929."

Dennis O'Keefe is talking about forming a little-theatre group comprised of stand-ins. Obvious reason: O'Keefe (born Flanagan) used to be a stand-in himself . . .

Gale Storm had to smoke in "The Bandit" and didn't know how. She learned. Husband Lee Bonnell, disapproving, thereafter tried to get her to quit. Gale didn't—until a recent radio broadcast with Charles Boyer, whose lecture was more persuasive . . .

Shelley Winters insists there's more romance in males who have passed the two-score mark. A good man, like a good wine, improves with age, says Shelley.

Three Swim Calm Channel

FOLKESTONE, England, Sept. 19—(UP)—Three more English Channel swims were written into the records today following a mass assault on the calm channel yesterday.

Hassan Abd Ed Rehim, 41, an Egyptian army lieutenant, crossed from England to France in 15 hours and 58 minutes.

Warrant Officer Marie Hasan Hamad, 40, another Egyptian, landed at St. Margaret's Bay, England, after a 16-hour-55-minute swim from France.

Zasson Zirganos, 40, a Greek army major, landed in the same place in 18 hours and 45 minutes.

Retired Captain Dead At Coast

VANCOUVER, Sept. 19.—(CP)—Death Saturday claimed a 97-year-old retired sea captain famed on this coast after more than 50 years of marine wayfaring.

He was captain Victor Jacobson, Finnish-born of Swedish parents, who started a long career when he was 12. He had come to Victoria 65 years ago and retired here in a houseboat only a few months ago.

Neat Cross-Ruffing Insures Contract

By William E. McKenney

Today's hand was taken from the recent National Tournament held in Chicago. As you can see, the contract was only four diamonds. Nevertheless, the hand came in for a great deal of discussion.

Some East and West pairs bought the contract for three hearts. If South opened a spade, this contract quickly was defeated. The most interesting contract was when North became the declarer at four diamonds doubled. East opened the three of hearts. A small heart was played from dummy and West played the eight, allowing North to win the trick with the ten-spot. The six of spades was played and West won dummy's jack with the ace. West returned the king of hearts. This trick was won in dummy with the ace and the ace and king of clubs were cashed.

Dummy's jack of hearts was ruffed with the four of diamonds. The ten of clubs was played, East ruffed with the nine-spot and dummy over-ruffed with the king. A small spade was ruffed with the five of diamonds. Another club was ruffed and then a spade ruffed with the six of diamonds. When declarer played the nine of clubs and ruffed in dummy with the eight of diamonds, West over-ruffed with the queen. And now there was no way to prevent declarer from making another diamond trick and his contract.

OIL

Ellis Stepout Non-Producer

By Don Flach

Gulf Oil Co. has failed to find production in their first step-out well from the discovery, N. J. Ellis No. 1. The step-out, Bauer No. 4, located two miles due south of the discovery found the D2 too tight to produce and the D3 was found below the Stettler water line. The well is bottomed

Pacific Calvan No. 4-23 is drilling ahead at 3,207 feet. Abandonment of the well appears likely.

Bear Biltmore is drilling at 2,714 feet and Beaumont at 1,637 feet. Peace River test No. 8 is drilling at 3,370 feet.

STONY PLAIN FAILS

Royalite Stony Plain with bottom at 5,385 feet is being abandoned after failing to find commercial showings of oil. This well found a trace of oil in a drillstem test of the interval from 4,891 to 4,899 feet in the D2 when recovery was 300 feet of mud, 50 feet of oil and 900 feet of salt water.

At Redwater, Royalite 18-5 finished drilling at 3,252 feet, and is acidizing. Attempt was made yesterday to swab into production but proved unsuccessful. Hole was drilled 66 feet into the D3. No. 19-5 has set 570 feet of 10¾ inch surface casing. Royalite Sharphead is drilling at 5,177 feet.

The discovery well found 100 feet of payzone split between the D-2 and D13 with a potential as revealed by drillstem tests of 3,000 barrels daily.

In the Redwater field, Gulf is completing two more wells boosting its producers in this field to 18. The completions are Pich Nos. 13 and 14 which are being swabbed in today. Nos. 15 and 16 are drilling at 2,630 feet and 2,952 feet respectively.

Gulf Upton 30 miles south of Stettler is drilling in shale at 3,165 feet. Gulf Fred Schrempp at Pincher Creek is readying to run seven inch casing to bottom at 12,475 feet.

In the Whitemud area, Alberta Oil Leaseholds No. 3 set surface casing this morning. Pan Western Kavanaugh is drilling at 5,005 feet.

Pacific Calahoo, Northwest of Edmonton recovered 60 feet of mud in a drillstem test of the interval from 4,008 to 4,026 feet. Well is drilling again at 4,039.

Nestow No. 1, being drilled by Pacific is coring at 2,818 feet. Recovery in a test of the interval from 2,775 to 2,796 feet was 1,665 feet.

LLOYD. AREA ACTIVE

Lloydal Petroleums Limited, latest independent to enter the Dulwich sections of the Lloydminster oil field, has announced that it will start immediately to drill a series of stepout wells from the already proven part of the field. The sites are in lsd 9-4-49-27W3.

Rio Bravo Oil Company, Canadian subsidiary of the Superior Oil Co. (U.S.A.), is now planning to drill its first well after six years of exploration. The well will be located near Halkirk, about 27 miles east of the Stettler discovery, on lsd 1-6-38-15W4. A rig being forwarded here from California by the parent company will be used to test through to the bottom of the Devonian formations.

INSTALLING EQUIPMENT

Production equipment is being installed at Superior Joseph Lake No. 2. Meanwhile No. 3 is drilling ahead after cementing surface casing to 315 feet.

Oyen Wheat King No. 1 is fishing at 3,741 feet. Casagama No. 1 has bottomed at 5,350 feet and is running production test.

Barnsdall - Honolulu - Seaboard Flatbush No. 2 is coring at 2,965 feet. BHS Willson No. 1 is fishing with bottom at 7,892 feet. South Smoky Lake No. 1 is drilling at 2,000 feet.

Carloadings Drop Sharply

OTTAWA, Sept. 19.—(CP)—Carloadings on Canadian railways during the Labor-day week ended Sept. 10 took a sharp drop to 73,526 cars, compared with 85,027 cars for the previous week and 76,929 cars in the corresponding week a year ago.

The Bureau of Statistics reported gains over the corresponding week in 1948, were registered in grain, ores and gasoline. Reduced movements occurred in grain products, livestock, coke, building materials, pulpwood, lumber and woodpulp and paper.

Daily Average Sets Record

CALGARY, Sept. 19.—(CP)—Alberta's average daily oil production set a record of 66,880 barrels during the week ending Sept. 12, the Petroleum and Natural Gas Conservation Board said in a weekend release. The previous high of 63,373 barrels was set during the week of August 22 this year.

Production in the Leduc, Redwater and Turner Valley fields increased considerably over that of the previous week. Leduc's 313 currently-operating wells each produced an average of 105 barrels daily for a total of 32,964 barrels a day for the whole field.

Production at Leduc the previous week was 29,886 barrels a day.

Redwater's production climbed from 17,806 barrels daily in the week of Sept. 5 to 18,855 barrels a day from the 174 producing wells in the week of Sept. 12.

Production at Turner Valley rose from 9,556 barrels a day to 10,728 barrels daily.

The new mark more than doubles Alberta's weekly oil production one year ago. During the week of Sept. 13, 1948, the provinces output was 31,704 barrels daily.

As of Sept. 12, there were 983 wells in operation in the province, an increase of 12 over the week before.

Golds Zoom Ahead As Trading Soars

Papers Gain Up To 2 Points; Key Base Metals Also Climb

TORONTO, Sept. 19.—(CP)—Gold stocks boomed upwards in the heaviest trading since August 1947 on the Toronto Stock Exchange today.

Devaluation of the British pound sparked a heavy buying surge in gold mining shares. Best gains were shortly after the opening with prices tending to ease slightly in mid-session. Demand increased again towards the close.

Activity bubbled over into base metals and paper stocks featured a brisk industrial board. Volume was about 4,800,000 shares.

Senior golds were strongest on gains ranging up to more than two points. Juniors showed advances up to 60 cents. Activity slackened on the slight mid-session downtrend but boomed ahead when demand increased.

A wide list of key issues sold at new highs for the year or longer. The exchange's index showed the widest advance on record of 9.56 after the first hour of trading but then slipped slightly.

Key base metal issues like Noranda, Consolidated Smelters and Quemont featured the higher base metal list.

The industrial list climbed to the highest point of the year in early dealings. Papers showed a solid list of gains ranging up to two points. Refining oils and foods were also higher while utilities eased.

Western oils moved narrowly with gains and losses about balanced. Anglo-Canadian was a comparatively active performer.

Early Losses Are Wiped Out

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—(AP)—The stock market today weathered news of British devaluation in good form.

A few minutes of selling immediately after the opening put prices down fractions to a point or more. But subsequently losses were either trimmed or wiped out.

Business was brisker than usual with turnover at the rate of about 1,300,000 shares.

Gold stocks advanced, as they did on Canadian exchanges and in London.

The news of devaluation created a favorable impression in Wall Street. Most observers interpreted the move as a contribution to freer and more realistic international trading.

McIntyre Porcupine added 1¾. Dome Mines was up ¾, Canadian Pacific ½, and Hiram Walker ⅜.

Papers, Metals Strongest Groups

MONTREAL, Sept. 19.—(CP) — Trading slackened slightly near the final hour on the Montreal Stock Exchange and curb market today and securities slipped after this morning's strong forward advance.

With the British announcement that the pound sterling had been devalued securities soared up but eased as the day wore on.

Papers and base metals continued to be the strongest groups on the board with several issues flunating gains of two points and more.

Brokers ascribed strength in papers to rumors the Canadian dollar would undergo some measure of devaluation, a move which, through increased return on the big volume of Canadian newsprint and pulp sold in the United States, would boost earnings of paper companies.

They recalled that the return of the Canadian dollar to par in American funds in 1946 brought an easing of stocks in the paper group.

Advances today in papers were, so far as the industrial board went, offset by downturns in several leading shares.

An hour before the close industrials had a turnover of 80,700 shares while in the mines there was a changeover of 453,100 shares.

Noranda and Hudson Bay Mining were each two points stronger. Consolidated Smelters was up a point. International Nickel and Aluminum also advanced.

In the papers the "up-and-go' issues included St. Lawrence Paper first and second preferred, Powell River and Abitibi. Others on the upside included Bathurst, Fraser, Howard Smith and Price.

National Pete Jumps To 44

CALGARY, Sept. 19.—Royalite, Pacific Pete and National Pete were the biggest gainers as interest increased in oils on Calgary Exchange, but each gained only five cents.

National Pete went up from 39 to 44 in a turnover of 5,500 shares, while Pacific Pete closed at $2.90 in sales of 900. One hundred shares of Royalite sold at $7.20, a new high, and up five from Friday. Central Leduc advanced two cents to 75½, while Atlantic was off one at 71.

Hanna Pete showed a sharp drop of five cents from Friday, closing at 9¼ in sales of 15,500, after touching 15 during the day. Leduc Calmar was the most active, selling 26,000 at 11¼ to 11½.

Volume for the day was 121,000, about 44,000 higher than Friday.

Livestock

EDMONTON, Sept. 19.—Total receipts: Cattle 457, calves 72, hogs 132, sheep 29.

Monday's cattle market opened fairly active under normal receipts. Several loads of today's run were from the north and will not be shown until later in the day. The few early sales of trucked-in cattle were steady with last week's close. The first round would indicate that market values wil continue steady in the afternoon session.

Last quotations of good to choice steers 18.00-20.00, and good to choice heifers traded at 16.00-18.00.

Good butcher cows quoted at 12.00-13.50. Bulls remain steady, best weighty bologna 12.00-14.00.

Good quality feeders continue in demand from 14.00-16.00.

Calves are unchanged, good handyweight vealers 18.00-20.00, heavy calves 14.00-18.00.

Hogs continue steady, grade A for shipment 31.00, grade A at local plants 29.00, sows liveweight 15.50, stags—11.50, and feeders 22.00-26.00.

Lambs remain steady, good to choice handyweights 18.00-20.00. Buck lambs are discounted 1.00 per cwt. from grade.

Week ending Sept. 17, 1949, inspected slaughterings: Cattle 35,997, calves 17,220, hogs 64,450, sheep 27,026; hog gradings for Western Canada 15,040, for Eastern Canada, 56,747, total 71,787.

The ancient water-clock was known as a clepsydra.

Coarse Grain Futures Reach Seasonal Highs

WINNIPEG, Sept. 19.—(CP)—New seasonal highs were registered by coarse grain futures on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange today, stimulated by devaluation of the English pound and the belief of possibility of devaluation of the Canadian dollar.

The devaluation announcement from London also stimulated nervous and fairly active trade and light offerings.

Rye and flax both came in for demand for American houses and shippers and buyers.

Prices of class two wheat, for export to countries other than the United Kingdom, were unchanged.

BOND MARKET

MONTREAL, Sept. 19. — (CP) — There was a feeling of uncertainty on the bond market here today following the devaluation of the pound sterling.

Canada long terms were bid down ⅛ in quiet and featureless trading. Bond brokers were reported waiting to see the general reaction to the British move.

Provincials, municipals and corporations were also steady in quiet trading.

AIR SECURITY NATIONAL SECURITY
He's a member of aircrew in the Royal Canadian Air Force.
Months of training on some of the finest aircraft and technical equipment in the world have made him a man to be respected . . . a man to whom we all look for the defence and security of our Canadian skies. His job is a big one . . . but he'll measure up . . . and he'll be a proud addition to a great Air Force. If you can meet the standards required by the R.C.A.F., you can become a pilot, radio officer or navigator.
On completion of your basic training, you'll be commissioned and appointed to the rank of Flying Officer with a total income of $284 a month. Don't wait! Find out RIGHT NOW about the thrilling future that awaits you in the service of the Royal Canadian Air Force. Write or visit
